Casi, thank you for always believing in me and pushing me to be better.

Comments: I'd like to start out by thanking my parents, grandparents, and siblings for the love and support they've given me throughout the last 4 years of softball AND the previous years of softball and baseball leading up to this moment. As the only slapper on the team, I definitely have my ups and downs but I want to thank DC for the patience and coaching he's given me. Softball has brought me many friendships that I am extremely thankful for. And even though Casi and Jenny are always yellin' at me, I like to take it as very constructive criticism! #19, signing off.

Comments: To my amazing parents, thanks for trying to make it to every game even with my siblings crazy schedules, for always supporting me, putting up with me, and helping me through hard times. Thank you to Casi and Jenny for coaching me, helping me, and keeping my head in the game. Thank you to Laura and Becca for all they've done the past three years. And to my teammates, especially Alycia and Logan for supporting me through my hard times and getting me to play this year. I don't know what I would do without my support system. I love you all, and I'm gonna miss you all.

Thank you to my sister (Jayden) and my boyfriend (Jacob) for all your help and support!!! My many coaches throughout the years; Casi and DC you have both made a huge impact!!! My teammates past and present, a special thank you to Logan Walsh who will do whatever she can to make me laugh and get me out of my head when I am pitching. Number 24 signing out!

Comments: These last four years have taught me a lot, patience being the biggest lesson, as well as having to learn new perspectives on how people think. This game is about strategy and it takes hard work and real determination, where sometimes you fail more than you succeed. I would like to thank my parents for helping me with everything and for being my biggest supporters. As Well as my friends who convinced me to play even when I didn't want to. I know that we butt heads a lot but I do thank you guys for pushing me as much as you did. I love you all!

Casey Whaley

Parents: Matt and Jenny Whaley

Escorted by: Parents, sister (Avery), grandparents (Wade and Cindy Eddington and Mike and Karen Whaley), boyfriend (Luke Schell)

Comments: First I would like to thank my family for coming to every game and bringing me snacks. Next the girls for always being there and making great memories with them, whether that be with inside jokes or just making fun of each other. One of my favorite memories is playing wiffle ball games and the trash talk that comes with it. I would also like to thank Casi for putting up with me and my mom when we argue. Big thanks to my Mom and Grandpa for making me into the player I am today. Uhhh.... number 2 signing off.

Comments: Softball has been a significant part of my life for most of my life. I am still grateful that my parents slightly pushed me into playing a sport that has given me an outlet that has kept me sane. In addition, I am very thankful for some of the other things that my parents have given me, like food, a roof over my head, or a collection of bad words to yell if I don't catch a ball that's pitched, thrown, or hit me. I am beyond grateful for my parents, who love and support me, even if they don't support my belief that birds work for the government.
