

Defenders fall to Lancers

Wednesday, February 12, 2014

Standard Journal

LOYALSOCK TOWNSHIP— Angie Cardillo hit a pair of free throws with 12 seconds left to break a tie and lift Loyalsock to a 53-49 win over Warrior Run in a Heartland Athletic Conference Division II girls basketball game Tuesday night.

Abby Fisher led Warrior Run with 17 points and Steph Shamburg had 16. Emily Webb and Madi Welliver each had eight.

Warrior Run will host Sullivan County tonight to end the regular season and will face Danville at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Shamokin Area High School in a HAC semifinal contest.

Loyalsock 53

Warrior Run 49

Warrior Run (17-4) 15 13 12 9—49

Loyalsock (9-13) 15 17 8 13—53

Warrior Run (49)

Steph Shamburg 6 4-6 16, Abby Fisher 5 4-4 17, Madi Welliver 3 2-2 8, Emily Webb 4 0-1 8, Chloe Eisenhuth 0 0-0 0, Laura Bastian 0 0-0 0, Maddie Beyer 0 0-0 0. Totals 18 10-13 49.

3-point goals: Fisher 3.

Loyalsock (53)

Allie Pagana 3 7-8 13, Kayla Gee 3 2-2 10, Kendall Watkins 6 0-0 13, Angie Cardillo 1 4-4 6, Cellina Salvatori 1 3-4 5, Emma Fox 0 0-0 0, Cassi Kuhns 0 0-0 0, Abby Sullivan 2 0-0 6. Totals 16 16-18 53.

3-point goals: Gee 2, Sullivan 2, Watkins.