

WALTON-VERONA BEARCATS HIGH SCHOOL WRESTLING

BUILDING A Tradition of Excellence

January 2, 2018

The Bearcats finished up 2017 with a great showing at the Greater Miami Valley Wrestling Association Holiday Tournament. Competing without four starters, WV finished as runner-up in the small school division (behind St Paris Graham who is ranked #5 in the country) and fourth overall in the 48 team field. Out of the nine wrestlers who started the tournament, four made the podium. Seniors Ryan Moore (132) and Mason Smith (170) repeated as GMVWA champions, Daulton Mayer finished 4th, and Braden Mulcahy placed 5th.

A busy January will kick off on Wednesday January 3 as we travel to Harrison County for the Sectional Dual Championship. As the defending sectional champions, WV will compete against #12 Scott, Harrison County, and Holmes to qualify for the State Dual Championship later this month. This weekend the Bearcats stay local to compete in the Simon Kenton Invitational Tournament.
