RELATION WITH PARENTS

As a parent of a student/athlete at Crawford Central School District, you are expected to:

1. Realize that extracurricular activities are a part of the educational experience, and that the benefits of involvement go beyond the final score of the contest.
2. Encourage students to do their best, just as well as would urge them on with their class work.
3. Respect the job of our coaches/advisors and support them as they strive to teach our youth.
4. Respect our opponents as students trying to do their best.
5. Respect the game officials as well as the rules of the game.
6. Develop a sense of dignity under all circumstances.
7. Abstain from using inappropriate language.
8. Abstain from coming on to the field of play, team bench areas, locker rooms or other restricted areas unless invited by a school official or coach/advisor.

I understand the expectations listed above and understand that inappropriate behavior or language directed at any party sets a poor example for students/athletes and will not be tolerated. Failure to comply with the stated expectations could lead to ejection from the extracurricular activity.
