Penn Manor's First Football Coach:

Bill Beck was born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA. He played football in high school and at St. Vincent College in Latrobe, PA. He graduated in 1962 and was recruited to play football for the New York Giants and Chicago. Instead of playing football, he became a Social Studies teacher and football coach for Braddock High School in a suburb of Pittsburgh. He coached there from 1961 to 1968. In 1968, he coached an additional year for Brownsville High School. Then in 1969, he moved to Millersville and became the head coach for the Penn Manor Comets. He began the program with the Freshman team and played their first varsity game in 1973. In 1974, the Comets won the Lancaster-Lebanon Section II Championship. Coach Beck remained the coach until 1981. He then continued to coach at different levels. In 2006, the scholarship program began. Since 2007 19 different players have received scholarships.
