May 13, 2009: West Branch 6 at Glendale 7

FLINTON — Glendale's Bobby Ivory had a tough time figuring out West Branch pitcher Lance Yox throughout most of Wednesday's game in Flinton.

Yox handcuffed the Viking junior in his first three plate appearances, striking him out on each occasion.

Ivory got the last laugh, however, as he lifted Glendale to a come-from-behind win by belting a two-run walkoff home run for a 7-6 victory.

Ivory also earned his first win of the season in relief of starter Brad O'Donnell. O'Donnell went into the sixth before the Warriors finally took the lead, but Ivory came in and ended the inning with consecutive ground-outs.

Todd Rees connected on a two-out double in the seventh for West Branch, but Ivory bounced back with his only strikeout to keep it a one-run deficit heading into the bottom half of the inning.

"It was a nice hit ... he was due," said Glendale coach Mark Queen of Ivory's home run. "He's been struggling, everyone's been struggling with our bats. He was just due. It was just meeting the ball. We keep telling them just to meet it. That's all we've got to do.

"He pitches pretty well most of the time. There are a few times where he gets out of control, but he's done well this year. The main thing is he's only a junior and he's coming back, which will be nice."

For West Branch, the loss ended its season on a sour note just one day after it clinched the Moshannon Valley League title with a dominating performance over Curwensville.

The Warriors, who went scoreless through the first four innings with six runners in scoring position, trailed Glendale 4-0 heading into the fifth where they pushed anything across against O'Donnell.

West Branch ended its campaign with a 10-9 mark.

"I told them the way it was — we played a three-inning game and watched them play the first four," Warriors coach Jake Myers said. "You don't win many games playing three innings, but they play us tough all the time. I don't care what their record is ... we have a tough battle every time we play them.

"We had opportunities. As a coach, all you can ask for is opportunities. If you get opportunities and score, there's really nothing you can do about it."

A pair of unearned runs staked the Vikings to a 2-0 lead after three, and Glendale tacked on its first earned runs against Yox in the fourth.

Steven Rusnak legged out a bunt base hit before scoring on a wild pitch later in the inning, while O'Donnell helped his cause with an RBI single.

The Warriors loaded the bases with nobody out in the fifth, where Ryan Wesesky laced a two-run single to slice into Glendale's lead.

Aaron Symosky followed with a sacrifice fly two hitters later to make it 4-3.

West Branch took the lead for the first time in the ensuing inning, as Gavin Luzier completed a 4-for-4 day at the plate with a two-run homer to give the Warriors a 5-4 edge.

West Branch tacked on another run on an RBI groundout by Wesesky.

"We did some good things in the last three innings of the game," said Myers. "If we played the whole game like that, I think we could have pulled this out. We had such a big win yesterday and we were so high, but it's really tough to come and play the next day. I wish we could've had a day off."

Glendale cut West Branch's lead in half in the bottom of the inning, as Dustin Shaffer connected on a solo homer to set the stage for Ivory's heroics.

After having a perfect game thrown at them on Monday, the Vikings bounced back with a 10-hit effort, including three from O'Donnell and two from Vance Kimberly.

The Vikings improved to 4-12 on the season, and will host a doubleheader this afternoon. Glendale tangles with Harmony at 1, while entertaining Moshannon Valley at 4.

"I told them this could be the seniors' last game right here ... let's win it for them," said Queen. "We've got to stay focused and hit the ball, which we haven't done."
