MOUNT UNION — The Glendale baseball team surrendered 12 runs in the third inning of Wednesday's season opener at Mount Union, and ultimately dropped a 16-1 decision in three innings.

Brad O'Donnell was responsible for the only Viking run of the contest, as he belted a solo home run in the second inning.

Glendale's Ethan Cree was hung with the loss after allowing five earned runs in two-plus innings of work.

The Vikings are back on the diamond this afternoon at Claysburg-Kimmel.
