ALLPORT — Michelle Matthews pitched a three-hitter and Candace Peterson bagged three hits, scored three runs and drove in a run, sparking Glendale to a 14-3 six-inning win over West Branch Monday in Moshannon Valley League game.

After forfeiting to West Branch on an illegal substitution call last Thursday, Glendale combined 13 stolen bases and eight hits with nine West Branch errors to win the return match.

The win left Glendale in third place in the league with a 6-4 record. West Branch retained second place with a 7-3 slate.
