Victory is sweet

Dublers, Hoover garner titles this time

By TODD IRWIN

sports@altoonamirror.com

They all tasted defeat in the District 6 Class 2A championship finals last season, leaving Glendale's Zeke Dubler and Suds Dubler and Penn Cambria's Trent Hoover with a bitter taste in their mouths.

It was that bitter taste that drove them in the offseason and led to all three standing on the top step of the medals podium on Saturday night at the Altoona Fieldhouse.

Junior Zeke Dubler (160), senior Suds Dubler (172) and sophomore Hoover (126) captured district titles. Suds earned his second district title in his fourth finals appearance, while Zeke and Hoover earned their first titles.

It's the first time brothers won district titles since Hayden and Trent Hidlay won Class 3A titles for Mifflin County in 2016. It's the first time in Class 2A since Forest Hills' Triston and Cody Law captured titles in 2013.

"It was awesome Zeke and I going back-to-back as champs," Suds Dubler said. "I one-upped him (with the pin)."

Zeke earned a 4-1 decision over Forest Hills' Dustin Flinn. Suds followed with a pin of Bald Eagle Area's Caleb Close in 5:14. Hoover beat Forest Hills' Hunter Forcellini, 8-4, in the finals.

The finals weren't as pleasant for Tyrone's Korry Walls (106), Ashton Sipes (132) and Braden Ewing (285), Central Cambria's Ethan Kubat (189) and Bellwood-An-tis' Ethan Norris (215). All of them lost in the finals.

Walls and Norris came oh so close to winning titles. Walls was ridden out in the ultimate tiebreaker by United's Jacob Sombronski to lose, 3-2.

Norris, the seventh-seeded Cinderella story of the tournament, beat Glendale's third-seeded Britton Spangle, 6-5, in the quarterfinals and Moshannon Valley's second-seeded David Honan, 3-0, in the semifinals.

The B-A junior then suffered a 2-1 loss to Forest Hills' Kirk Bearjar, who rallied with two points in the third on an interlock penalty point and an escape. Norris took a couple shots in the third, but Bearjar defended them.

"It was a grind to work my way up to the semis and then the championship," Norris said. "Just to get up to the championship was amazing. Unfortunately (Bearjar) capitalized. I didn't capitalize on a couple finishes I had on some single-leg attempts. He had some great defense, so props to him.

"I feel great. I feel like I could go out and wrestle whoever. No matter who I wrestle, it's going to be my match. I'm looking forward to regionals."

Sipes dropped a 5-3 decision to Phillipsburg-Osceola's Marcus Gable. Kubat suffered a 4-0 loss to BEA's Noah Foltz in the finals. Huntingdon's Gunner Singleton avenged his District 6 Duals loss to Ewing, 7-3. Ewing appeared to injure his leg in the loss.

Tyrone finished in third place in the team standings with 162.5 points. Forest Hills captured its second straight team title by 19.5 points over Bald Eagle Area, 205.5-186.

Hoover (28-6), who had two pins, started out quickly against Forcellini, nailing two takedowns in the first two periods and adding three nearfall points for an 8-0 lead. Forcellini reversed in the second and added a takedown in the third.

"I had a good start," Hoover. "I should have pushed the pace a little bit more at the end, and scored some more points, but I think I wrestled pretty well this weekend."

"I'm very proud of him,"

Penn Cambria coach Todd Niebauer said. "He's a kid who works his tail off. The kids in our room know he's the one that goes the extra mile sometimes."

Niebauer, PC assistant coach and former head coach Doug Fogel were inducted into the District 6 Hall of Fame, as were Cambria Heights' former coach Mike Eckenrode, Claysburg-Kimmel wrestler Chris Musselman and former Glendale coach and Bellwood resident Bill Damiano. There were 16 inducted into the HOF.

"I'm very honored," Niebauer said. "I credit all the great families and the great kids and administrators I've had over the years."

Zeke Dubler (32-2), who had three pins to reach the finals, was in a scoreless finals bout with Flinn the first two periods. Dubler reversed, gave up an escape and notched a takedown with 35 seconds left, exciting the Glendale section.

"Losing to (Westmont Hilltop's) Hudson Holbay last year really pushed me to work harder," Zeke said. "Getting my first title has always been on my list to accomplish."

Suds Dubler (33-2), who was a 106-pound champ as a freshman, rolled into the finals with two technical falls and a pin. He was only up 1-0 on Close in the third when he muscled in a bar and half, put Close on his back and pinned him. He flexed to the Glendale section in celebration.

"It feels great," Suds said. "I had bonus points throughout this tournament. It was at one of the toughest weights too. I was just excited. My goal was to be a four-time district champ. My eyes were really on being a district champ this year."

Six wrestlers from the Mirror coverage advanced to the semifinals of the Southwest Regional Class 2A Tournament on Friday at Peters Township High School's AHN Arena in McMurray.

They did in dominating fashion, combining for seven pins, a major decision and four decisions in the 12:30 p.m. semifinals. The championship finals, third-place, fifth-place and seventh-place bouts are set for 5:15.

Walls pinned his way to the semifinals, decking Derry's Dylan Klim in 1:10 and North Star's Colton Frazier in 2:21. Sipes opened with a 5-1 win over Freedom's Tanner Millward, and followed with an 11-2 major decision over Mt. Pleasant's Greg Shaulis.

Walls will face Burgettstown's top-seeded Parker Sentipal in the semifinals. Sipes has a semifinal matchup against second-seeded Joey Sentipal.

Hoover followed a 51-second pin of Freedom's Gavyn McCray with a 3-1 win over Quaker Valley's Brandon Krul. Hoover scored a takedown with 57 seconds left in a 1-1 bout. He'll face Chestnut Ridge's Kobi Burkett in the semifinals. Burkett won by injury default in the semis.

Tyrone's Korry Walls (106) and Ashton Sipes (132), Glendale's Zeke Dubler (160) and Suds Dubler (172), Penn Cambria's Trent Hoover (126) and Central Cambria's Ethan Kubat (189) all advanced to the semifinals and automatically quali-

Zeke Dubler recorded pins in both of his bouts, decking Chartiers-Houston's Jesse Orbin in 1:15 and Beth-Center's Trevor Pettit in 2:45. Dubler faces Derry's Christian Hirak in the semifinals.

Suds Dubler waited a little longer to get his pins, putting away Southmoreland's Bryson Robinson in 5:40 and Quaker Valley's Mason Diemert in 5:00. He'll face Marion Center's Gavin Stewart in the semis.

Kubat earned a 6-0 win over Beth-Center's Alston Csutoros and an 8-3 decision over Central Valley's Brennan Morgan. Kubat faces off next in the semis against Quaker Valley's top-seeded Patrick Cutchember.

There are 18 other area wrestlers who will try to navigate their way through the consolations.

Dublers, Hoover, Sipes all triumph on first day

By TODD IRWIN

sports@altoonamirror.com

HERSHEY — Glendale junior Zeke Dubler and senior Suds Dubler and Penn Cambria sophomore Trent Hoover spent a combined 4:09 on the mat in the first round of the PIAA Class 2A Championships.

It was a dominant Thursday morning for the trio at Hershey's Giant Center.

The Dubler brothers and Hoover all had first-period pins to advance to the quarterfinals.

Altoona freshman 152-pounder Luke Sipes later survived a 3-1 overtime nail-biter over Daniel Boone's J.T. Hogan in the Class 3A first round.

Zeke Dubler pinned Reynolds' Vito Gentile in 1:06 at 160, and Suds followed a few minutes later with a fall over another Reynolds wrestler, Jalen Wagner, in 1:38 at 172.

"It's pretty awesome," Zeke said. "Not many people have another sibling just tearing it up with them. You're pinning your kid on one mat and look over and see your brother getting his hand raised is pretty cool."

The 126-pound Hoover had no problem wrestling in his first state tournament, decking Littlestown's Cameron Mingee in 1:25.

The Class 2A quarterfinals and second-round consolations begin at 9 a.m. this morning. The semifinals are set for 7:30 tonight. The Class 3A quarterfinals are at 2:15, and the semifinals aren't until 9 a.m. Saturday.

Seven of the eight Class 2A wrestlers are still alive. Tyrone's Korry Walls (106), Ashton Sipes (132) and Braden Ewing (285) are still going in the consolations.

"Our three guys with their first time at the state tournament are doing well," Tyrone coach Quentin Wright said. "Any time you can make it to the top 20 in the state and get a win is an accomplishment."

Central Cambria's Ethan Kubat (189), who was slammed at the Southwest Regional on Saturday and rushed to Pittsburgh Children's Hospital, is still wrestling after a dramatic pin in his first consolation bout.

Glendale's Britton Spangle (215) was the only 2A wrestler eliminated on the first day. Altoona's Luke Hileman (106) was eliminated in Class 3A.

Zeke Dubler (36-3) built a 5-0 lead on Gentile before getting the fall and advancing to the quarterfinals. He'll wrestle Bishop McDevitt's Anthony Glessner (33-11), who went 2-0, including a 2-0 win over Lackawanna Trail's fourth-ranked Robbie Schneider.

"I got the nerves out," Zeke said. "I felt good out there wrestling. I didn't know what to expect, but I just went out and did my thing and got it done."

"Tomorrow, I have to get to my offense and my attacks, and I'll worry about myself."

Suds Dubler (37-3) took Wagner down, sunk his highly effective bar-arm in, put Wagner on his back and pinned him. The fifth-ranked Dubler has a big quarterfinal against Southern Columbia's third-ranked Garrett Garcia (36-3), who pinned Berks Catholic's Gabriel Davis in 1:45.

"It feels great," Suds said. "I wanted to get that first match out of the way. There were definitely nerves. I've never won a championship round match at states. It's all new to me. It's fun competing in the Giant Center as well. I'm definitely enjoying these last moments in high school wrestling."

"I've got Garcia tomorrow. I know he's going to be tough, so I just have to come in focused and have a good match."

PIAA STATE WRESTLING

Sipes

HERSHEY — Altoona freshman star Luke Sipes has been saying consistently this season that he wants to win a state title.

The Mountain Lion is two wins away from doing that.

Sipes advanced to Saturday's 9 a.m. semifinals of the PIAA Class 3A Championships with a 2-1 win over Nazareth's Dominic Wheatley in the quarterfinals on Friday at Hershey's Giant Center.

"It feels great," Sipes said. "This is what I've been working for since I was little to get on this high school (medals) podium. I just punched my top six spot. As soon as I saw the bracket, or even before the bracket, I've known I've been one of the best kids at my weight.

"I work hard every day. I believe in myself and, yeah, I was confident coming into this tournament."

Glendale's Zeke Dubler (160) and Suds Dubler (172) will wrestle in respective third-place bouts today in Class 2A. Their only losses were to wrestlers named Garcia. The championship finals, third, fifth and seventh-place bouts are at 2 p.m.

Zeke dropped a heartbreaking 3-0 decision to Notre Dame-Green Pond's Holden Garcia in the semifinals. He responded with a pin in the consolations. Suds lost to Southern Columbia's Garrett Garcia, 2-1, in the quarterfinals, but went 3-0 in the consolations.

Penn Cambria's District 6 and Southwest Regional champ Trent Hoover went 0-2 on Friday and was eliminated in what is called the blood round — the round prior to the medal rounds. Tyrone's Braden Ewing (285) went 1-1 Friday and also lost in the blood round.

Zeke Dubler reached the semifinals with his second pin of the tournament — in 4:13 over Bishop McDevitt's Anthony Glessner in the quarterfinals.

Against Holden Garcia, he got taken down with 10 seconds left in the first period and couldn't make up the difference. He was involved in long flurry in the third, but Garcia stayed in control.

He followed the loss with a pin of Lackawanna Trail's Robert Schneider in 4:35 in the consolation semifinals. Zeke (38-4) will wrestle Newport's Ganon Smith for third.

"It's definitely not where I want to be," Zeke said, "but I wrestled pretty tough today. Garcia is a tough opponent. It's all right. I bounced back, got a pretty dominant win over a pretty tough kid. I'm excited for tomorrow."

After Suds suffered his loss Garrett Garcia in the quarterfinals, but he responded with a pin of McDevitt's Lucas Lawler in 2:53 in his first consolation bout, a 7-0 win over Notre Dame-Green Pond's Garret Tettermer and a 5-0 shutout of Canton's Riley Parker.

"I thought I did well," Suds said. "I dropped that first one to Garcia, but I fought back, and now I'm wrestling for third. I hope I keep it rolling into tomorrow. I'm definitely excited and very happy to wrestle for third."

Suds (40-4) will face Benton's Nolan Lear in the third-place bout.

HERSHEY — It says a lot about their competitive nature in wrestling, but Glendale brothers Zeke and Suds Dubler wanted to be higher up on the medals stand at the PIAA Class 2A Championships.

In the end, though, they wore fourth-place medals around their necks from the toughest high school state tournament in the nation on Saturday afternoon at Hershey's Giant Center. The state medals were the first for both Zeke and Suds.

Altoona freshman Luke Sipes also earned his first state tournament medal, claiming fifth place at 152 in the Class 3A Championships.

The Dublers both lost by one point in their respective third-place bouts. Zeke dropped a 3-2 decision to Newport's Ganon Smith at 160, and Suds followed with a 2-1 loss to Benton's three-time state placer Nolan Lear at 172.

"At the end of the day, I'm glad I got my first medal, but I'm never going to be satisfied until I'm on top of the podium," Zeke said after climbing down from the medals stand. "All of the kids I lost to (in the postseason) were tough opponents.

"Three of them were ahead of me on the podium this year at three, two and one with (Holden) Garcia, (Grant) MacKay and Smith. I had a good season, had some good wins, but it's time to get back to training and get ready for next year."

A third-period stalling point was still stuck in Suds' craw after the medals stand ceremony.

"Fourth place isn't too bad," he said. "It's my first medal, so I'm kind of happy. I think I definitely disagree with one of the stalling calls I was given. I didn't agree with that at all, but I just have to be more aggressive when I wrestle."

against Smith, Zeke (38-5) scored first with a reversal in the second period. Smith tied it with a reversal in the second, and Dubler appeared to have gotten another reversal before time expired in the period, but the referee didn't call it. The referee and the mat judge conferred, but the call was upheld.

"I thought I had that reversal," Dubler said. "I had a leg in and had a cross-face, and he didn't have my far ankle. I don't know what they're looking at."

Smith escaped in the third to go up by one. With 10 seconds left, Dubler hit a lateral drop, and his feet were inbounds, but the official ruled him out.

Suds (40-4) went to the third period down 1-0 Lear, but he escaped 30 second into the period to tie the score. Twenty seconds later, Dubler went out of bounds and the referee called him for stalling the second time, giving a point to Lear.

Dubler motioned to the official that Lear had grabbed his head gear before going out of bounds, which is a penalty point. But the referee didn't change the call. That point was the deciding one.

"I think they wrestled great," Glendale coach Brian Storm said. "You always wish they ended the year on a win. I thought it was really awesome seeing them on the podium and getting medals. It was great to see Suds finally get on that podium. I think he deserves it. He worked hard. I'm excited for them both with whatever their future holds."
