

Personality:

- Learning a sporting attitude, respecting the opponent
- Learning to communicate with teammates, coaches, and team support staff
- Learning to be open to others opinions
- Accepting leadership
- Learning to accept the referee's decision
- Learning to be humble of own performance with an attitude of continued improvement
- Learning to analyze their own game
- Learning to conform to team rules
- Learning to be open to coaching and open to playing other positions for the betterment of the team
- Learning that soccer is a team sport, and that everyone has a role in the success of the team
- Be a positive cog in team building
- Learning to have a professional attitude
- Learning to be responsible for equipment
- Learning to stay fit
- Learning to listen to your body