

Northwest Area Ranger Community,

It's game day! Time to cheer with pride and show our unwavering support for all our amazing athletes. Remember, we're not just spectators, we're the heartbeat of Northwest Area Athletics. Our cheers fuel the fire, our energy lifts the spirit, and our sportsmanship defines the true face of our school.

That's why we're setting clear expectations for being the BEST fans we can be. Here's the code of conduct every Ranger should embody:

BE the Best Crowd:

- Celebrate your team and opponents equally. Remember, there's hard work and dedication on both sides of the field. Show appreciation for good plays, regardless of which team they come from.
- No negativity allowed. Chants, cheers, and comments should be spirited and positive. Leave the taunts and put-downs at the door. Singling out individual players, especially with negative remarks, is never acceptable.
- Respect the officials. They're there to ensure a fair game. Disagreements happen, but keep it respectful and let the officials do their job.
- Stay in the stands. Running onto the field, disrupting play, or interfering with anyone is dangerous and disrespectful. Remember, the action is on the field, not in the stands.
- Keep it clean. Offensive language, inappropriate gestures, and personal attacks have no place at Northwest Area events. Let's cheer loudly and proud without resorting to negativity.
- Lead by example. Be the responsible, enthusiastic fan you'd want to sit next to. Remember, younger eyes are watching.

We're all part of the Northwest Area family, and the way we act at sporting events reflects who we are. Let's show everyone what it means to be a Ranger: supportive, spirited, and always respectful.

Remember, any behavior that violates this code of conduct, including demeaning, degrading, or derogatory comments, may result in dismissal from the game and further disciplinary action.

Let's roar with pride, show respect, and create a game-day atmosphere that's truly memorable.

Your Proud Ranger Athletic Department,

P.S. Share this code of conduct with your friends and family! Let's make every game a celebration of sportsmanship and school spirit.
