Norwood Indians Weekly

January 29, 2021 — Winter Issue 7

Women's Basketball

The Lady Indians unfortunately had to take off the last week or so but they will return to the court on Monday to take on Cincinnati Country Day! They are currently in 3rd place in the MVC at 7-3 overall and 3-2 in the conference.

The OHSAA Tournament draw and bracket will be released on Sunday night.

Swimming

Our Swimmers have had the past week off but will return tomorrow to host the Miami Valley Conference High School Championships beginning at 10:30 AM. Results will be posted on Monday and the livestream will be available on the Norwood Athletics Facebook page. Good luck swimmers!

Academic Quiz Team

Yesterday, the Quiz Team took down Summit Country Day for their first win of the season! The final score ended with Norwood on top, 64-57. Next up is Madeira next Thursday!

Bowling

The Lady Indians Bowling team went 1-2 this week with losses to Wyoming and Mariemont, and a W against conference foe, Clark Montessori. They are 3-3 in the MVC and 6-10 overall.

The men's team went 2-2 this week with wins over North College Hill and Clark Montessori. They are 5-2 in the MVC and 8-10 overall.

The OHSAA Tournament will begin on the 10th and 11th of February at Colerain Bowl.

Men's Basketball

The Men's Basketball team is on a four-game winning streak after beating Lockland on Wednesday, 86-65! With six games still to go, Norwood has the most wins in a season (and in a row) since 2017.

Senior, Kevin English is continuing to get closer to the 1000 career point club with 947 as of today!

Wrestling

The Wrestling Team will return to the mat after a week off next Thursday at Hamilton for a tri-meet. Their final home meet will be for Senior Night on Friday, February 19th against Scott High School.
