Norwood Indians Weekly

April 30, 2021 — Spring Issue 4

Softball

Lady Indians Softball is the first MVC team to break into the double digits in wins this spring. At 10-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference, the ladies are sitting in 2nd place with a chance to share the MVC Championship if they win out!

On Saturday they defeated Carroll 11-1, Monday they lost to New Richmond 4-14, and on Tuesday they beat CCDS 15-2.

Hannah Green is batting .610 (5th in MVC); Rylie Molden has 24 RBIs (3rd in MVC), 2.37 ERA (3rd in MVC), 9 wins (1st in MVC), and 57 strikeouts (4th in MVC).

Senior Night has been moved to Friday, May 7th before their home game against Seven Hills (4:00 PM).

Baseball

The Baseball team is currently 6-7 overall and 2-6 in the MVC. On Monday and Tuesday, they lost to fellow conference school, Cincinnati Christian 11-1 and 10-3.

They have four games left before the OHSAA Tournament starts.

Senior Night will be on Monday, May 10th against Mt. Healthy.

Tennis

On Tuesday, Norwood traveled to Summit Country Day to take on the Silver Knights. In the double header, Amy Almengor got the win, 4-6, 6-4, 8-3!

They will finish the regular season next week with OHSAA Sectionals on May 12 or 13 at Mason High School or the ATP Stadium.

Track & Field

On Wednesday, the Track & Field team headed to Taylor High School for their annual invitational. Top placers for the Indians were:

- Jordin Evans 1st in High Jump
- Elijah Partin 8th in High Jump
- Anna Geisz 3rd in 100m Hurdles & High Jump
- Isaiah Shields 7th in Shot Put

Next week they will have their last meet before the MVC Championships and OHSAA Sectional (Tuesday, 5/4 at CHCA).
