

Congratulations to the 2019-2020 Male and Female Athletes of the Year.

Ava Ranson has been a four year starter on both the Timberline Girls Varsity Basketball and Girls Varsity Soccer teams. She earned SIC Honorable Mention in both sports as an underclassman and was selected 1st Team All-Conference/All-State in both soccer and basketball her junior year. Ava's senior soccer season, she was named 1st Team All-Conference/All-State and helped lead Timberline to a 3rd place finish at the state tournament. Her senior basketball season, she was named SIC Co-Player of the year, earned 1st Team All-State honors, was leading scorer in the SIC, and led her team to the state championship for the first time since 2004. She holds three scoring records at Timberline and was a McDonald's All-American finalist. As the Female Athlete of the Year, Ava received a $500 scholarship from the Timberline Athletic Booster Club. She will continue to play basketball at Montana State University in Bozeman, MT. Congratulations Ava and good luck in the future!

Andy Peters has been a part of the Timberline Varsity football program since he was a sophomore. By the end of his junior year he was ranked as a 3-star quarterback. He was listed as the 62nd best pro-style quarterback in the country. He helped lead the Wolfpack to its first winning season since 2004 and made school history winning the first ever playoff game. He scored a combined 27 touchdowns his senior year and scored 68 through his four years of playing. Andy won pride of the pack at the end of the year along with Offensive Player of the year for the SIC. As the Male Athlete of the Year, Andy received a $500 scholarship from the Timberline Athletic Booster Club. Andy graduated from Timberline December of his senior year and signed with Boise State University to continue playing football. Congratulations Andy and good luck in the future.
