

Girls Softball

Wednesday, March 26, 2014

Standard Journal

TURBOTVILLE—Warrior Run pounded out nine hits but could only muster four runs in the Heartland Athletic Conference Division II game against Loyalsock.

The Defenders (0-1) were led at the plate by Maddie Beyer with three singles and Carra Rishel with two. McKenna Beyer and Lynn Vermilya each had a double.

Jackie Vognetz made her first varsity start in the circle and allowed 10 hits and struck out one.

Warrior Run travels to Lewisburg Thursday.

Loyalsock 7

Warrior Run 4

at Warrior Run

Loyalsock (1-0) 022 201 0—7-10-1

Warrior Run (1-0) 002 000 2—4-9-1

Kayla Gee and Kay Lupo, Jackie Vognetz and Lynn Vermilya.

W—Gee. L—Vognetz.

Loyalsock Top Hitters: Allie Pagana with two singles, Allison Czap with a double and Allie Kennedy with a double.

Warrior Run Top Hitters: Maddie Beyer with three singles, Lynn Vermilya with a double, Carra Rishel two singles, McKenna Beyer with a double.

Loyalsock 7

Warrior Run 4