

Meet our Athletic Training Team!

NovaCare[®]
REHABILITATION
SPORTS MEDICINE

1016 N. Saginaw Street, Suite B, Holly, MI 48442 – P: 248.634.4424 F: 248.634.5995

Nick Minichiello, A.T., ATC – Nick earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Saginaw Valley State University and is completing a master's degree in exercise physiology from James Madison University. He is a CPR instructor for the American Red Cross. Additionally, he is Graston certified for instrument-assisted soft tissue massage. Prior to joining NovaCare, Nick was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at James Madison University, teaching courses within the athletic training program and working with the football, soccer, baseball/softball and basketball teams. Nick enjoys golfing and being with friends and family.

3240 Silver Lake Road, Fenton, MI 48430 – P: 810.714.4616 F: 810.714.4809

Mitch Smelis, A.T., ATC – Mitch earned a bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Central Michigan University and started providing athletic training coverage at Fenton High School in 1997. He is the co-chair of the Michigan Athletic Trainers Society (MATS) Secondary School Athletic Training Committee. Additionally, he is a CPR instructor for the American Heart Association and instructor for the Michigan High School Athletic Association Coaches Advancement Program. Mitch was recognized by MATS as the 2017 Secondary School Athletic Trainer of the Year. His wife, Nickole, is a teacher at Fenton Area Public Schools, and they have children, Parker and Marshall.

Katlyn Saunders, A.T., ATC – Katlyn earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Central Michigan University. Before joining the NovaCare team, she worked for three years at a high school in the Grand Rapids area. Katlyn is an instructor for the American Heart Association and holds SportsMetrics[®] certification for ACL injury prevention. She loves spending time with her family and friends.

David Hillger, A.T., ATC – David has been an athletic trainer since graduating in 1992 from Wayne State University. He is married with two adult children. He is passionate about his faith, family and health. His favorite activities are working out, camping and watching his sons compete in college athletics.

Contact NovaCare Rehabilitation today for more information about our athletic training services!

CONNECT

NOVACARE.COM