Under special circumstances, parents may pick up their son/daughter at the site of an athletic contest for the purpose of taking them home or to another destination provided:

- Arrangements have been made with the coach or the athletic department, in advance.
- The parent or legal guardian identifies himself/herself in person to the coach to take custody of the student for this purpose after the contest.

Student athletes will never be released for this purpose to anyone except their parent or legal guardian.

Student athletes are expected to travel with the team unless this criteria is met.
