Weekly News and Updates #1

Week of August 17, 2020

We had a fantastic first week! As I mentioned in our parent meeting, it is clearly evident that we have a bunch of really nice young men on the team. Combine that with a desire to work hard, we have a bright future.

This will be a short version of our "News" this week as you did get quite a bit in the past few days.

Have a great week!

Go Trojans!
