

1970-1971 Season

Glendale Has 3 Vets, Lacks Height

What do you do when you only have one player on the varsity roster who is 6-0?

Anyone with a respectable answer is asked to contact Glendale basketball coach Joe Vesnesky.

The Vikings have three lettermen returning from last year's 6-16 club. Back for another campaign are juniors Jeff Best and John Vigne and senior Rick Miles.

Best, a 5-9 guard, was the Vikings' third best scorer last winter with 206 points. Vigne (5-10) netted 112 markers while Miles (5-6) canned 37.

Vesnesky didn't waste any time in formulating a starting lineup so he could get his unit as much practice as possible before tomorrow night's opener at Bellwood-Antis.

Miles and Best will be at guards while Vigne joins Bill Dubler (5-10) at forward. Mike Tiesi, all of 5-9, will patrol the center.

The top two reserves are forward Dale Keith, who's the team giant at 6-0, and guard Sam Tiesi, a sophomore. Jim Washell, who is injured, will be a top candidate when he returns next month.

In looking at the Moshannon Valley League, Vesnesky said he couldn't make any predictions as to a winner or a favored team. "For us as a pint-sized team, they're all gonna be tough. I can't see any easy games, so I can't pick a champion. We'll just have to try and beat them all.

"As far as this team goes, we have no height and that means we'll have to go to a pressure-type ball game. We'll have to be able to box out the taller opponents on the boards and when we get the ball, we'll run with it.

"We're still getting used to playing on the big floor at the new school, and it's hard for some of these kids coming out of a band box after playing zone defense all their lives.

"I'm really pleased with the kids, though. They've really been hustling and they're giving me 100 per cent at all the practices. I'm confident we'll surprise some teams."

Graduation claimed the services of starters Joe Gresco, Duane Smeal and Larry Rydbom along with Bill Dudurich, George McClellan, Jim Bloom and Nick Cherish.
