Injuries, Late Start Slow Glendale

FLINTON — Injuries and a late start have Joe Vesnesky concerned about next week's opener, but he says "Never sell a Glendale team short."

Brian Lightner and Scott Laing were both looked upon as starters, but now Lightner is practicing with a heavily bandaged finger and Laing is out indefinitely with an ankle injury.

Glendale's undefeated football season has also had its effect on the Vikings' cage team. Holding off basketball practice until the football playoff question was settled causes Vesnesky to claim "We're a week away from where I'd like to be."

"We scrimmaged Westmont Hilltop Saturday and we've got what I like to call 'linebacker legs.' We were fouling left and right, but it's coming."

"There's no doubt it's going to be tough in the beginning. We open with St. Francis and they're going to be tough. What I'd like to do is pray for rain."

Returning from last year's squad are five lettermen, three of them starters on the 1973-74 Vikes. Back are Ron Kimberly, the team's top scorer with 209 points, Laing and Gene Yingling, the second high scorer with 205, all members of the first five last season. Lightner and Jeff Bloom are also lettermen back and both of them saw a lot of action last year.

"We were banking on our lettermen to be our starters this year, but now with the injuries I don't know what'll happen."

Vesnesky feels lack of height may be another problem for Glendale since no one goes over the six-foot mark.

Glendale, noted in the past as a running team, will be a fast moving team again. "I love to run, the kids love to run and we're just in another realm when we can run. The lack of height also puts some pressure on us to keep the ball moving."

As far as the defense goes Vesnesky says "We'll be throwing everything at them this year."

"We've only been practicing a week and we're not sure of anything yet but this school and team have too much spirit and pride not to do a good job."

Glendale will compete in the Northern Cambria League Section B and the Moshannon Valley League Southern Section this year. Their division in the Mo Valley League includes Harmony, Mo Valley and Northern Cambria.

Vesnesky, entering his 11th year as coach of the Vikings, will be assisted by Tom Terza, JV team, and Andy Bloom, junior high.
