Glendale's Jasper named to JVL All-Star Team

Glendale senior guard Mike Jasper was the only unanimous choice on the Juniata Valley League Boys Basketball All-Star Team announced Tuesday at the annual league banquet.

Moshannon Valley's Cheryl Cervenak won a spot on the JVL girls' second team.

Brad Lashinsky of Mo Valley was named to the boys' second team, and Viking Nick Ninosky received honorable mention.

A 5-8 senior all-around athlete, Jasper, who scored over 19 points per game to place third among Progressland players, was named to the first team on each ballot in voting by league coaches.

Jasper also led the area players with 50 three-pointers during the year.

Lashinsky, a 6-foot junior, was second-best among Progressland foul-shooters with 77 percent accuracy from the line, and once canned 30 consecutive free throws over a four-game stretch this season.

Shawn Simpson of Juniata Valley was named the boys' Most Valuable Player, and was joined on the first team by Shawn Leslie of Claysburg-Kimmel, Williamsburg's Brad Swinsburg, and Mike Hiles (Southern Huntingdon) in addition to Jasper.

Ed Sparr, coach of Juniata Valley's boys' league champs, won Coach of the Year honors.

Central's Dave Hoenline was named girls' Coach of the Year, with the Lady Dragons' Julie Dunn winning the Player of the Year award.

Central's Tracy Wareham was also named to the girls' first team, along with Jennifer Hunter and Christie Bush of Bellwood-Antis, and Juniata Valley's Becky Briggs.

The 1990-91 All-Star selections were compiled by Jeff Norris and Terry Snare of the Huntingdon Daily News, and Juniata Valley League secretary Jim Baney of Williamsburg.
