2005-2006 Season

Glendale boys basketball looks to continue success

By Jon Christoff
Sports Writer

FLINTON — The Glendale boys basketball team advanced into uncharted waters last season, finishing fourth in the District 6 Class A playoffs.

But Viking head coach Gregg Mazenko lost four starters from last year's team and five seniors total, who had 38 of the 63 points Glendale averaged per game.

But the cupboard isn't bare for the Viking program, which had struggled in recent years before Mazenko assumed the controls a season ago. Mazenko helped guide Glendale to an 18-9 mark and looks to build on last year's success.

"We tell the kids that if they play every game as hard as they possibly can, then that game will take care of itself," said Mazenko. "I don't want us to look at February — I want us to look at what's in front of us. I want our team to be focused on the present. It's good to have long-term goals, but I think that can be dangerous as well."

The Vikings lost leading scorer Mark Lyons, who averaged 14.5 ppg, as well as Mark Yeckley, Richie Ball, Mark Noel and Colt Thomas to graduation.

Mazenko will look to returning starter Shane Krestar this season, as well as letterwinner Bill Ball, to help lead the inexperienced Glendale team.

"Shane started last year and Bill Ball started at times for us, and are pretty much locks to start this season," Mazenko said. "We have six or seven other guys competing for starting positions. We'll probably have a different lineup depending on what our opponents do, whether they run more zone or man. Our lineup will also depend on who is playing well at the time."

Krestar averaged 14 points per game last year and was a force nulling down rebounds.

"Shane pretty much controlled the rebounding for us last year," said Mazenko. "He pulled down 356 last season, and I look for him to exceed that mark this year."

Ball played a pivotal role off the bench last season, averaging 10.1 points per game. The Glendale senior also connected on 42 three-pointers and hit 36-of-42 free throw attempts.

"He started early for us last season, and last year gave both him and us confidence in what he can do," said Mazenko. "He ended last season on one heckuva note, scoring 27 points against Conemaugh Valley when Mark Lyons was in foul trouble. That game gave him confidence, and hopefully he can carry it into this season."

While Ball and Krestar are considered locks to start, Mazenko has been looking at several other players to fill the final three starting positions.

In the mix are seniors Jimmy Wagner and Andy Barnhart, junior Gary Walstrom Jr., and sophomores Brock Kauffman, Sam Yingling, and Brett and Ethan Hulihan.

"I knew last year that there were four guys that were going to start. Everyone this year needs to prove that they belong," Mazenko said. "Practice has been pretty intense and really competitive. I think the way the kids practice will help them in the long haul."

The Vikings will be competing in the Moshannon Valley League again this season, as well as the Juniata Valley League.

"I think we have a lot of talent, although it is young talent. They still need to learn some things," said Mazenko. "We'll look to Shane and Billy to not let them rely on them all the time. We want five guys working as one, instead of relying on two guys to handle everything."

While Mazenko will have to welcome new starters to his lineup, he will also have to change the way he coaches.

"I had those guys last year since they were in ninth grade, and they knew what I was going to say before I said it, which made coaching easy," Mazenko said. "My coaching will be a lot different this year because I'll have to explain things that I'm not satisfied with. I have to be more specific with what I want them to do."

Glendale begins the season Friday at the Harmony Tip-Off Tournament, facing Claysburg-Kimmel at 6 p.m.

"Winning is a mentality and a mind-set. We preach to these guys that if you work hard and play as one, then you will win," said Mazenko. "It doesn't matter what a school's history is, it matters what you put into it. If we do those things, then we will be pretty successful."

Glendale boys topple Claysburg-Kimmel

By Dennis Arnold
Sports Writer

WESTOVER — The Glendale boys basketball team tangled with Claysburg-Kimmel in the opening round of the Harmony Tip-Off Tournament Friday and was hoping to defend its title from a year ago.

The Vikings made it to today's championship game with a convincing 49-29 victory over the Bulldogs and will meet Harmony for the title.

Shane Krestar posted a double-double, scoring 25 points and pulling down 15 rebounds. He also added six steals and had two blocked shots for the game.

"Shane picked up where he left off by controlling the boards and scoring," said Glendale head coach Gregg Mazenko. "They went small in the beginning, and our guards recognized that and got him the ball."

Glendale began the game on fire, racing out to an 8-0 lead, largely due to Krestar who scored 10 of his team's 15 points in the quarter, but Claysburg-Kimmel cut the lead down to two points after one period.

Krestar

"I'm glad that after we let them back in the game we were able to get aggressive again and play smarter and played harder," said Mazenko. "We started well but midway through the first quarter we let them back in it."

In the third quarter, Glendale built on its lead with some balanced scoring as Krestar, Gary Walstrom and Sam Yingling each scored four points for a 38-20 lead after three.

With a big lead Mazenko was able to play a lot of his players and outscored Claysburg-Kimmel 11-9 in the fourth quarter.

A key stat in the game was the Vikings outrebounding the Bulldogs 46-18, and according to

The Viking defense stepped up in the second quarter, holding the Bulldogs scoreless for the entire period while opening up a double-digit lead of 26-13 at the half.

Mazenko, a nice positive for his team was the play of sophomore Brett Hullihen.

"Our rebounding advantage was key, and Gary Walstrom did well to clear out guys to allow Krestar to rebound," Mazenko said. "Also Brett Hullihen was a pleasant surprise ... I knew he could play defense well but he was very aggressive on the offensive end, which is what we need him to do."

Yingling contributed eight points to go along with seven rebounds and three assists, while Walstrom chipped in six points of his own and five rebounds.

Coach Mazenko was happy with the win but said his team needed to learn to not let up on a team when it has it down like it did in the first quarter.

"I told them that psychologically we let them (Claysburg-Kimmel) believe they could win, and you never want to do that," said Mazenko. "You want to make a team think that it is over before they get back in it when you go up early like we did."

He also added, "Claysburg played hard and got back in the game but we picked it up in the second period and the second half. We shut them out in the second quarter, and I told our team we needed to play with that intensity throughout the entire second half."

Caleb Fleck led the Bulldogs with nine points. Kyle Nale added eight.

The Vikings will have little time to relish their opening game win as they face backyard rival Harmony for the championship tonight at 7:30.

Dominant third quarter propels Curwensville to win over Glendale

By Dennis Arnold
Sports Writer

FLINTON — Wednesday night's Moshannon Valley League matchup between Curwensville and Glendale had each team winning two quarters. In the end the Golden Tide downed the Vikings 61-49 largely due to Curwensville winning its two periods more decisively.

Curwensville got things rolling by winning the opening period 19-10 and shooting 8-of-12 from the field and controlling the boards with six rebounds.

After the teams exchanged three baskets apiece for a 6-6 tie with 4:25 to play in the first, the Golden Tide scored 13 of the next 17 points.

Phillip Michaels started the run with a trey and finished the quarter with another three-pointer to spark Curwensville. Teammates Bart McGary and Shawn Sopic each added four points while Justin Mayhew and Joe Catalano each chipped in a bucket in the period.

"We needed that good start in the first quarter because after that we went ice cold for awhile," said Curwensville head coach Matt Wassil. "The quick start allowed us to sustain our lead throughout the game and may have been in trouble in the second half."

For Glendale Sam Yingling and Billy Ball each had four points while Shane Krestar added a basket in the first.

"In the first quarter they came out more aggressive than we did and were very physical," said Glendale head coach Gregg Mazenko. "They were getting more rebounds because they were hustling and boxing out better than we did. It just took us too long to adjust to the style of the game."

The Vikings mounted a comeback in the second period to cut the lead to four points twice and three points once, as Krestar had five points in the period to lead the way for Glendale.

Sopic's basket at the end of the quarter built the Tide lead back up to five at 27-22 at the half despite Curwensville shooting only 3-of-11 from the field in the period.

After going a little cold shooting from the field in the second quarter, the Golden Tide returned their hot shooting form of the first period hitting 7 of 15 shots in the third.

But the key to the period was Curwensville's defense and the Vikings' offense (or the lack of a Vikings' offense) as the Tide shutout Glendale 15-0 in the period.

"I knew we played well in the third, but sometimes coaching you lose track of how well they actually did," said Wassil. "It was an excellent effort by our kids (to shut them out) in the third, to force turnovers and make it hard for them to shoot the ball. That's a great job by our kids."

The Vikings did not make a shot from the field, missing all seven attempts while turning the ball over 11 times and only pulling down three rebounds, negating any second shots.

"It's never good when you have 11 times more turnovers than points scored," said Mazenko. "We weren't being aggressive and we were settling for outside shots, and we didn't get the ball to the high post even though they weren't fronting it."

In the period for Curwensville, McGary led the way with six points. He finished the game with 17 points and eight rebounds. Sopic added five points and Michaels chipped in four to round out the scoring in the period for the Tide. Sopic and Michaels finished the game with 13 points apiece.

Trailing 42-22 entering the final period, Glendale did not quit. The Vikings made a couple of runs at Curwensville to try to get back in the game.

Midway into the period, Glendale cut the lead down to 12 at 47-35. Brock Kauffman came off the Vikings bench to spark Glendale with five points during the run, while Krestar and Yingling added three points apiece. Seniors Andy Barnhart and Jimmy Wagner each added one free throw during the run.

But the Tide also got a spark off the bench, as Jerry Barrett scored four straight points to squelch the run and push the lead back up to 16 points at 51-35 with 3:38 to play.

"When we play well, our starters play solid and our bench guys come in and provide a spark, which is what happened," Wassil said. "Joe Catalano came in and made some shots early. Brandon McDonald came in and added some points and Jerry Barrett, in the second half, really stepped it up when he subbed for Sopic, who was in foul trouble."

Glendale was not finished yet as it went on a 10-4 run over the next few minutes to cut the lead down to 10 at 55-45. Krestar had five of the 10 points during the run and eight points in the period.

He finished the game with 15 points, 10 blocked shots and seven rebounds.

Down the stretch, though, the Vikings could not get any closer, as Curwensville put the game away from the foul line. The Tide connected on 9 of 13 free throws in the fourth period for the victory.

"We are average as a team shooting free throws, and, luckily, we had the guys that came through hitting the shots in the fourth," said Coach Wassil. "Their strategy was to put pressure on us and if they fouled, they hoped we would miss to allow them to get back in the game, but we made enough to keep the lead."

Along with Krestar, Yingling and Ball also reached double figures, scoring 10 each for the Vikings.

"Too little too late ... I was proud of our kids' effort especially in the end," said Coach Mazenko. "We cut it down to 10 but missed a few chances to get it closer."

Curwensville also won the junior varsity game 56-52. Brandon McDonald (14), Joey Palmer (12) and David Kalgren (11) led the way for the Tide. Derek Matthews (21), Brock Kauffman (12) and Vance Kimberly (11) led the Vikings. Curwensville improved to 8-13 overall and 5-3 in the MVL. The Tide host Sheffield Friday.

"It's still up in the air if we are going to playoffs, I think we are playing our best basketball at the end of the year," said Wassil.

"We have missed Michaels for six games this year, and just playing in that type of atmosphere can only help our underclassmen get some excellent experience. It would be wonderful for our kids to go because you cannot simulate that in practice or regular season games."

Glendale is 11-12 overall and 3-5 in the MVL. The Vikings host Southern Huntingdon Tuesday.

First Team

Billy Ball, Glendale: After missing his team's first three games of the season, Ball came on strong to post the area's second best scoring average. He scored 336 points in 22 games, good enough for 15.27 points per game.

He drained 49 three-pointers on the season for a 2.23 per game average, which was third in the area in both categories.

Ball, a senior guard, also finished fourth in Progressland in free throw percentage at .714, making 45-of-63 on the season.

Ball led his team with 79 assists, averaging 3.59 apg, and came up with 53 steals on the year for the Vikings to go along with 89 boards.

For the year, Ball scored double figures in 19 of his 22 games, scoring a season high 33 points against Claysburg-Kimmel.
