Glendale boys welcome back four letterwinners for 2011

By Jon Christoff
Sports Writer

FLINTON — The Glendale boys basketball team went to new heights last season, as it won the Inter-County Conference North Division championship, the Moshannon Valley League and was the top seed in the District 6 Class A playoffs.

Gone from that team, though, are head coach Rick Stackhouse and four valuable starters, including Progressland Player of the Year Tyler Jenny.

The cupboard isn't totally bare for first-year head coach Mark Yeckley, though, as he returns a key cog in last year's outfit in the form of Michael Wigfield, and a supporting cast that had great success on the junior varsity level.

Yeckley, who led the Vikings deep in the district playoffs in 2005 as a guard, looks to his predecessors in Stackhouse and former coach Gregg Mazenko, as well as the late Terry Kruse from Harmony, in prepping his squad for the upcoming season.

"Mazenko and Kruse were both intense, in-your-face kind of guys on the basketball court," said Yeckley, "and I'd say that's where my defensive philosophy would come from.

"I can't remember playing against a team coached by Terry that wasn't constantly in your face, one way or the other.

"Playing for Gregg definitely got you in the right mindset and Rick, I think he had a game-plan for everything. I would like to have the best of those three if I could, but those are definitely big shoes to fill."

Wigfield and his 6-foot-5 frame will give Yeckley a good start on stepping out of the shadows of the coaches he learned from, as he was a viable Player of the Year candidate after helping the Vikings to a 19-5 record.

The senior forward, who will also be called on to handle the ball at times, averaged 12.7 points and eight rebounds in starting all 24 games a season ago.

Wigfield also added 2.4 steals, 2.4 assists and 2.3 blocks each game last year, but his experience and leadership is what Yeckley is most excited for.

"Wigfield is the only one that we really had that consistently — not only started — but played a majority of the time," Yeckley said. "Everyone else saw some time, but not as much as we would have hoped (coming into the season) because we were pretty senior-laden last year as well.

"Having a guy like Michael is definitely valuable. He knows the competition at the varsity level, and if there's any confusion on the court, the rest of the team will look to him to lead them through. I believe he's accepting that role and helping guide them in the right direction."

When Stackhouse had to go to his bench, which wasn't very often, the first guy he went to was Damon Braniff, who will run Glendale's point this season.

In addition to Braniff, a junior, Yeckley is looking to a core of seniors to help lead the way.

Lettermen Patrick Hamilton, Billy Sanders and Kyle Wright will likely form the starting five for the Vikings. Glendale will also get considerable playing time from senior Zarek Evanskey and juniors Gary Witherow and Chris Wilson — none of whom averaged more than 3.5 points per contest.

"Our lineup is probably going to change a lot through the year depending on matchups — who we play, when we play — and who's hot and who isn't," said Yeckley. "We're going to look to our seniors to carry a majority of the load, and I believe, confidently, that we can go seven or eight deep (and not miss a beat).

"Offensively, we're looking to wear people down. We're going to look to push the ball any chance that we get and, if we don't get anything out of it, we'll set up our offense and run it, hopefully, to perfection. I'm looking for our attention to detail to be our strength."

After a successful season at both the varsity and jayvee levels, expectations are high for Glendale, but Yeckley wouldn't put a number on just how successful the season would be.

"We didn't set a number of wins that we want this year," Yeckley said. "We've actually talked at length a couple of times about how total wins doesn't mean anything in late February or early March. Our goal is to set ourselves up nicely for the playoffs and, obviously, make a run at districts and ultimately get to the state playoffs."

"I think it's a legitimate goal to set with the players that we have on the roster."

February 24, 2012: Glendale 67 vs Williamsburg 66 (District 6 Playoffs)

Glendale holds off Williamsburg to earn trip to D-6 semis

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Editor

EBENSBURG — In the end, it all came down to one foul shot for the Glendale boys basketball team.

After going a horrid 5-of-15 from the free throw line in the first 31½ minutes of their game against Williamsburg, the Vikings needed a foul shot on a and-1 with 17.6 seconds remaining to take a 67-66 lead.

Glendale's Dakota Sinclair stepped to the line and knocked it down, and the Vikings defense did the rest, sealing the one-point victory over the Pirates in the quarterfinals of the District 6 Class A playoffs on Friday evening at Bishop Carroll High School.

It was a dramatic victory for the Vikings, who lost a 12-point lead with 3:21 to go in the game.

"Coming into the game, honestly, I thought it was going to be back and forth like this one was the entire time," said Glendale head coach Mark Yeckley.

"I give credit to Williamsburg for fighting back in the second first time we played them we lost by like 20 and the second time we played we won, so we knew it was going to be close no matter what."

Things didn't look so close at halftime, as Glendale held a 33-21 lead over Williamsburg, which struggled with fouls and turnovers most of the first half.

The biggest key, however, was the play of the Vikings' Billy Sanders, who put in several easy baskets while the Pirates were focused on Wigfield.

Sanders had 12 points in the first half, and finished the night with a career-high 20 points.

"We call him our ninja," Yeckley said. "He likes to coin himself as that, too. Honestly, he's been doing that all year. I don't think he missed a shot tonight. If he did, he may have missed one."

"Every game he has the same opportunities, and tonight he really pulled through and cashed in on a lot of good looks."

The Pirates started to focus on Sanders a little more in the second half, allowing Wigfield to before a jumper by Wigfield gave the Vikings a 64-62 lead.

Williamsburg kept on driving to the hoop, and drawing fouls. Jed Dishong hit two free throws with 1:12 to play to tie the game at 64-64.

After a Glendale turnover, the Pirates went back down the court and drew another foul. Dalton Price made both of his foul shots to give the Pirates a 66-64 edge with 30.6 seconds remaining.

The Vikings brought the ball back up the court, determined to knot things back up.

Sinclair drove to the hoop and was fouled. The ball rolled in, giving the Viking sophomore a chance to put his team up by one. Sinclair knocked it in and Yeckley immediately called a timeout.

Williamsburg had 17.6 seconds left to bring it back up the court. The Pirates drove to the basket to try to draw the foul, but didn't get the call.

After three attempts to put the ball in the hoop, the final try was rebounded by Wigfield, who Dishong added 18 points and seven rebounds. McCall notched 11 points, while Caleb Morrissey had 10.

The Pirates finished the season at 14-9.

Glendale improved to 15-8 overall. The Vikings will play top-seeded Northern Cambria, a 71-58 winner over Penns Manor, at a date, site and time to be half. They turned up the intensity and put the pressure on us. The shots we were making in the first half, we didn't make right away in the second half.

"We let their crowd get into it, and their kids got really pumped up. Luckily, we were able to get it together. I think our experience from the season with a lot of close games helped us here."

In four games this season, the Vikings have won twice by one point, lost by one point and lost in double overtime. Their final game of the season was a 51-50 nailbiter at Harmony.

One of the games that wasn't close, however, was a 22-point defeat at the hands of the Pirates in Williamsburg. Glendale did turn it around at home, downing the Pirates by four.

"We played real well," said Viking Michael Wigfield. "The take advantage.

The Glendale senior poured in 16 of his 27 points in the second half, including two key 3-pointers that helped the Vikings stretch their lead late into the fourth quarter.

"The first half we rode Sanders," Yeckley said. "He was making everything. In the second half, Wigfield did what he does. I'm very proud of all of our guys for not being selfish."

"Without those four guys on the outside, Wigfield doesn't score like that. It was a great team effort tonight to walk away with the win."

That victory looked in jeopardy with less than three minutes to play, as Williamsburg's Mike McCall knocked down a jumper to give the Pirates a 62-60 lead.

A bucket by Sanders tied the game at 62-62 with 2:58 to play pushed back up the court and was fouled with 0.07 on the clock.

Glendale inbounded the ball one final time and the buzzer sounded, giving the Vikings the 67-66 victory.

"We did real well keeping it together and keeping our composure," said Wigfield, who also had 13 rebounds and three blocks. "It got real loud in here, but we kept going."

"Billy played a great game, too. He was getting wide-open and easy shots. He was making everything tonight and that really helped us."

Sinclair finished the game with nine points and five rebounds, while Kyle Wright and Zarek Evanskey each had five rebounds.

Williamsburg was led by Price's 21 points.

February 28, 2012: Glendale 51 at Northern Cambria 74 (D6 Playoffs)

Glendale boys fall to Northern Cambria

By Andy Stine
Sports Writer

EBENSBURG — The Glendale boys basketball team came into Tuesday night looking for an upset and destroying Northern Cambria's chances at a district title.

Unfortunately, the Colts had other ideas in throwing their own party. A fast first quarter led them to a 74-51 victory over the Vikings in the District 6 Class A semifinals.

Northern Cambria avenged a loss against Glendale from Dec. 27, when the Vikings beat the Colts 56-47 at the Cambria Heights Tournament.

"It was just a different game last time," said Glendale head coach Mark Yeckley. "We came out and we just didn't hit our shots early. They hit just about every shot early. They got on the boards better than we did."

"When you're not making shots and you're not rebounding well, it's tough to put points on the board."

When the ball was tipped, the Vikings hung around for the first two minutes of the game. The Colts opened up with a quick 4-0 lead, but Billy Sanders and Kyle Wright both put in buckets to keep Glendale in the game.

Then with the score at 6-4, the Colts went on a 20-4 run that put them way ahead. The run included four of Northern Cambria's six 3-pointers on the night. A pair of those treys were from Adam Polites, and another couple came from Josh Bonatesta.

Bonatesta capped off the run with a tip-in at the buzzer sounded at the end of the first quarter.

"The first quarter was the tale of the tape," said Yeckley. "I don't know what it was in the first quarter. We started playing out of position, and we were over-aggressive."

"After the first quarter, we played a lot closer to them. We kind of woke up from whatever sleep we were in and played much more competitive ball."

After the tough opening period, the Vikings got their senior center Michael Wigfield going with half of his team's 12 points in the second quarter. Wigfield was held scoreless in the first and fourth quarters, as he drew double-teams and faced pressure all night.

"He had a tough night," said Yeckley. "He had hands in his face. He had people all over him. Same with (Damon) Braniff."

Viking center Michael Wigfield (22) drives to the bucket against Northern Cambria's Derek Bearer (10) on Tuesday night. Wigfield had 14 points for the Vikings, but the Colts defeated Glendale, 74-51.

"He had a tough night," said Yeckley. "He had hands in his face. He had people all over him. Same with (Damon) Braniff."

Northern Cambria used a balanced scoring effort, having five different guys get their 13 points in the quarter.

The Colts were up 39-20 heading into the break.

"They had five guys that can not only get up and down the court, but they could leap. And I don't think we've seen that yet," said Yeckley.

"We've seen teams that have had two or three kids that could do this. But across the board, they could all get up the floor, they can leap and they can score the ball."

The third quarter was almost a mirror image of the second. The Colts again used five guys to score their 17 points. For the Vikings, Wigfield scored eight of his team's 14 points.

Heading into the final quarter, the Colts got Polites going when he splashed another pair of treys. He doubled his six points in the first half with 12 in the second half, despite being on the bench with foul trouble.

Polites picked up his third foul in the second quarter and didn't return until late in the third.

Glendale was led by Wigfield, who finished the game with 14 points, while Sanders chipped in with 10 points.

The Colts were paced by Polites and Jeff Hogan, who each posted 18 points, while Bonatesta and Nick Lee put in 16 apiece.

Lee capped off Northern Cambria's big night with a thunderous dunk.

"They hustle," said Yeckley. "The one thing that stuck to my head was they were up 20, and I think it was Adam (Polites) was diving on the floor for a loose ball and saving it from going out of bounds."

"If you have kids with that kind of talent and that kind of attitude, they're going to go far. So I wish them luck."

"I told the guys, 'Go in. This one's going to hurt tonight. Brain dump it and go back to work tomorrow!'"

Glendale (15-9) will head to the court again on Friday night against Bishop Guilfoyle in the District 6 consolation game. A site and time is to be determined.

Northern Cambria (19-5) will play Bishop Carroll on Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at Saint Francis University. The Huskies were a 49-42 winner over the Marauders on Tuesday night.

March 2, 2012: Glendale 35 vs Bishop Guilfoyle 37 (D6 Playoffs)

Glendale boys bounced from playoffs by Bishop Guilfoyle, 37-35

By Jaclyn Yingling
Sports Editor

EBENSBURG — After squeaking out some wins over several opponents this year, Glendale wasn't able to muster one more rally as its playoff run ended Friday evening.

Down by two points to Bishop Guilfoyle with 7.8 seconds remaining, the Vikings got off two final shots, but neither fell, as they were defeated by the Marauders, 37-35, in the District 6 Class A consolation game at Bishop Carroll High School.

The Marauders snagged a rebound with three seconds left and Patrick Irwin fell on the ball and held it as time ticked off the clock for the win.

"I told them that this one is going to hurt a lot, since it was so close down the stretch," said Glendale head coach Mark Yeckley.

"But, we got a defensive stop with under a minute left and gave ourselves a chance to tie or win. It just didn't happen."

The teams played close all night, except a run each by both teams.

Bishop Guilfoyle rallied back from an 8-point deficit in the second quarter, while Glendale rallied back from six points down to get back to within two points of the lead in the fourth.

"There was a point in the second quarter of the game where I thought we were going to be able to open it up a little bit," Yeckley said.

"But the media timeout hit and stopped us in our run. Then they came back with a run of their own."

The Vikings held the lead the entire second quarter, heading into the locker room up 24-21.

But the Marauders came out and set the tone to start the third, as Colin Sullivan drained a 3-pointer to tie the game just seconds into the third.

Bishop Guilfoyle closed out the frame with just a 4-3 run, however, leading just 28-27 heading into the final frame.

Glendale's Damon Braniff gave his team back the lead after a steal and a layup, putting the Vikings on top 29-28.

But the Marauders went on a 7-0 run from there, as Sullivan drained another trey and Patrick Irwin and Nate Nardelli had buckets.

"When we did the scouting on BG, we knew that they would come out after halftime and really ratchet it up with defensive pressure," Yeckley said. "And, they did. I have to give them credit for their style of defense and doing what they did all year.

"The tempo of the game was definitely their style."

But the Vikings stayed in it, as Michael Wigfield took in a layup and was fouled. Wigfield missed the free throw, but Glendale cut the lead to 35-31.

After a Zach Patterson basket for BG on a turnover, the Vikings scored the next two buckets to make the score 37-35.

Bishop Guilfoyle called a timeout with 1:22 remaining, then turned the ball over 28 seconds later.

Glendale took the ball down the court and got off one shot before the Marauders knocked the ball out of bounds with 7.8 seconds remaining.

The Vikings got the ball to Wigfield on the inbounds pass, but his shot just clipped the rim.

Teammate Dakota Sinclair pulled down the rebound before putting a shot up. That also missed and Sinclair looked to get the putback, but the ball was grabbed by a BG player, who was on the floor, and held for the final seconds.

"They were a little bit quicker than I thought we thought they were going to be," said Yeckley.

"They disrupted Michael's motion. They got a hand in the pocket, and he isn't used to having a hand in the pocket.

When we missed, we couldn't pull down enough rebounds. And, when we did get rebounds, we couldn't finish."

Braniff led all scorers with 12 points.

Kyle Wright added eight points for the Vikings, while Wigfield finished the night with seven points. He also had 13 rebounds and four blocks.

"We got a co-league title this year and we made a playoff run," said Yeckley. "We could've packed it in when we were a sub-.500 team 12 games into the season, but these guys really came together and played well as a team.

"They won seven games in a row and set us up to be in a position like this."

Sullivan led the Marauders with nine points.

Patterson added six points, seven rebounds and three blocks.

Tai Irwin had eight points, six rebounds and two blocks.

Bishop Guilfoyle improved to 14-11 and will play the District 4 champion next Friday.

Glendale finished the season at 15-10.

2011-12 Progressland Boys Basketball All-Stars announced

Glendale's Michael Wigfield Player of the Year:

Glendale's Michael Wigfield
2011-12 Player of the Year

Player of the Year: Michael Wigfield, Glendale — To say that Michael Wigfield had a huge season may be an understatement.

Standing at 6-foot-4, Wigfield was almost always the tallest player on the court. He finished his senior campaign averaging a Progressland-best 19.1 points and almost 12 rebounds per game.

Not only was he a force in the offense for head coach Mark Yeckley's Vikings, he was also a defensive stalwart with 2.9 blocks and 1.9 steals per contest.

Wigfield's phenomenal numbers and his ability to lead the Vikings all season long led Glendale to a 14-8 regular season record and a fifth seed in the District 6 Class A tournament.

The Vikings earned a close victory against ICC foe Williamsburg in the District 6 quarterfinals. Then, the Vikings were defeated by eventual champion Northern Cambria and Bishop Guilfoyle in the semifinals and third-place game, respectively.

The Viking center posted his biggest game against rival Moshannon Valley on Dec. 15. He scored 36 points in the game, pulled down eight boards, and had four steals to give the Black Knights a headache all night.

He also poured in 27 in the playoff quarterfinal game with Williamsburg.

In addition to leading Progressland in points per game, Wigfield also was fifth in free throw percentage (61.7 percent) and seventh in 3-pointers per game (1.1 per game).

He was named a first team all-star for the Moshannon Valley League and the Inter-County Conference.
