Glendale Gir's Lose BB Tit

BARNESBORO — Glendale's female dribblers dropped their fifth game in a row last night, falling to Northern Cambria by a 32-24 score.

The Viking girls had a lead or most of the game, but apparently ran into trouble with the officials late in the contest. Jamie Yaworski scored 13 points for the losers while Sherry Hicles' nine points topped Northern Cambria.

The junior varsity contest also went to the home team by a score of 30-17. Leslie Shaw scored six points for the Glendale underclassmen.

Glendale, now 0-5, will close out its season at home against tough Curwensville on Tuesday night.

October 23, 1971: Curwensville 72 at Glendale 13

Curwensville Girls Dump Glendale 72-13

FLINTON — Curwensville's girls' basketball team remained unbeaten and spoiled Glendale's season finale last night by posting a 72-13 triumph.

Grace Butler netted 23 points to pace the winners. Glendale finished with an 0-6 slate.

The junior varsity contest also went to Curwensville by a 45-7 margin as Cindy Weider scored 14 points to lead the way.
