Glendale Drops First To Blue Devils

FLINTON — The Glendale High School girls basketball team lost their first contest of the season as the sharp shooters of Bellwood-Antis downed the Lady Vikings 50-39 last night in a non-league matchup.

The Lady Vikings kept pace with the Lady Blue Devils in the first and last quarters but fell behind in the middle frame.

Sophomore Kathy Geis banked 19 points and junior Amy Ross added a dozen markers as the Blue Devils simply out-shot the Vikings, according to Glendale Head Coach Rick Stackhouse.

"We played well," said Stackhouse. "We had spurts of three or four minutes in the second quarter and then in the third when we couldn't shoot the ball into the ocean.

"They shot better," added Stackhouse of Bellwood. "We played almost as good a 'D' but in the first half there was a big difference. Bellwood shot much better.

"I thought we executed well and I wasn't displeased."

The Lady Vikings trailed by one point after the first quarter, but dropped back to a seven point deficit at the half.

Lady Vikings Spear Owls 62-34

FLINTON — Glendale and Harmony entered Moshannon Valley League standings last night with the hosting Lady Vikings taking a 62-34 decision over the Lady Owls.

Missy Koteas led the Vikings with 26 points, a career high, and 14 rebounds as the hosts tallied 40 points in the second half while the Owls netted 11 in the same frame.

Head Coach Rick

Stackhouse said his Vikings did not play a good first half but recovered in the second half.

"We had a lot of unforced errors in the first half and only shot 10-46. In the second half we just picked up the tempo," said Stackhouse.

Kathy Murray added 10 points for Glendale.

Mary Jo Bernard had 11 points for the Lady Owls and Tammy Neff added 10.

The Vikings stand at 3-1 overall and 1-0 in the MVL and will host Williamsburg tomorrow night. The Owls will try to rebound for their Jan. 4 contest with DuBois Central in an MVL game.

Lady Vikes Continue Early Success

FLINTON — The Glendale High School girls basketball team continued its early season success last night by upsetting visiting Williamsburg 56-51.

Missy Koteas and Brenda Orrick provided the Lady Viking spark with 20 and 16 points respectively on the night.

"Williamsburg always has a decent team," Glendale Coach Rick Stackhouse said. "This was a tight game all the way, but we could have been up by 15 or 16 at the end of the first half if the ball would have dropped for us.

"Koteas did a very good job of rebounding in the game, we just played well enough to win."

The difference in the game came mostly in the first half when the Lady Vikings built up a 29-21 lead. However, in the second half the Lady Pirates held the upper hand by a 30-27 margin that just wasn't enough to overcome the stubborn hosts.

Leslie Miller powered the Pirates by matching the game high 20 point total of Koteas. Miller sank two three-pointers in the contest.

The jayvee contest was captured by Williamsburg with a 40-26 final. Jenny Keith canned 10 points for the Glendale squad.

The Lady Vikings will next be taking its 4-1 season record into the Williamsburg Holiday Tournament to be played on Monday and Tuesday.

Lady Mounties Survive Dogfight With Vikings

WILLIAMSBURG — Foul shooting, one team making and the other missing, was the final difference in the opening game of the Williamsburg Holiday Tournament. Philipsburg-Osceola was on the winning side of the free throw showdown nipping Glendale 54-53 last night.

The win moves the Mounties into the finals tonight against the host team at 8 o'clock. Williamsburg sent Juniata Valley to the consolation game via a 55-42 score. Glendale and Juniata Valley will take to the floor at 6:30 tonight.

The Lady Mounties connected on eight of 10 free throws in the final period while the Lady Vikings were good on just two of eight tries from the charity stripe.

"The foul line made the difference in the fourth quarter," Glendale Coach Rick Stackhouse said. "We missed the front end of at least four one-and-ones that could have changed things around."

Philipsburg-Osceola notched the victory in the last nine seconds of the game when an in-bounds play resulted in a layup to make the final stand.

"We looked very sluggish at the start of the game," P-O Coach Jim Smith said. "It was a very physical game and their press gave us trouble. Our girls just hung tough and fought back for the win."

The majority of the Mounties' scoring came from Amy Schnarrs and Ann Southard with 16 and 15 points respectively.

The Lady Vikings jumped to the early lead in the first quarter by a 12-4 score, but the remainder of the contest would prove to be who was able to battle back.

The second quarter found the the Glendale lead cut from eight points to a 21-16 difference by the intermission.

The Lady Vikings were lead by Missy Koteas with 19 points and as many rebounds. Brenda Orrick and Mary Murray backed Koteas' effort with 11 points each.

Philipsburg-Osceola had battled back during the third frame to hold a one-point lead at 32-31 and the final scrap was just about to begin. The two teams combined for 44 points in the final eight minutes and took turns holding leads of at least seven points. However, in the final seconds it was the Lady Mounties getting the clutch shooting for the victory.

"It was a frustrating loss for us," said Stackhouse. "We played well enough to win, but it didn't work out that way."

Philipsburg-Osceola now stands at 4-3 on the season while Glendale is 5-2.

Valley girls shade Glendale in consy

Two successful foul shots and a basket in the final 30 seconds lifted Juniata Valley's girls basketball team to a 29-27 victory over Glendale and third place in the Lady Pirate Holiday Tournament at Williamsburg last evening.

Host Williamsburg won its own tourney for the third straight year with a 64-46 rout of Philipsburg-Osceola in the nightcap finale.

The victory was especially sweet for Valley (3-4) since it avenged an earlier loss to the Vikings. "This win was a real confidence builder for us," declared Green Hornet Coach Diane "Suz" Price. "It gives us a big lift not only because we lost to them before but to head into January and a tough schedule."

The Hornets opened an early 8-3 lead, but lost it in the second quarter, when they allowed the Vikes to come back and outscore them 11-4 for a 14-12 halftime edge. By the end of the third period, Valley had reclaimed the lead, 19-18, but again fell behind in the final stanza.

With Glendale up 27-25 with about 30 seconds remaining, Jean Patterson canned two free throws to knot the score. The Vikings took possession but turned the ball over once downcourt. JV in-bounded the ball and Kelly Houck tossed a long bomb to Jamie Feagley, wide open under the Hornet hoop. Feagley pivoted and laid in the game-winning hoop.

Glendale still had time to try for a basket to tie, but the Vikings (4-3) tried a cross-court pass, which Feagley intercepted, to clinch the win for Valley.

"Neither team played too well, but our defenses were tough. We were out-hustled, but won it at the line," Price said.

TOURNEY NOTES: Valley trailed 11-7 from the field, but made 15-25 free throw attempts This was JV's first game without a three-point goal Dana Parks finished with 11 points and Jean Patterson nine for Valley Patterson was the only Hornet named to the all-tourney team JV hosts Clay-sburg Monday in a Juniata Valley League opener.

Lady Vikings Alone Atop MVL

FLINTON — The Glendale High School girls basketball team has made its bid for the top spot in the Moshannon Valley League by defeating co-leader Northern Cambria 49-41 last night.

The Lady Vikings are 6-1 in the MVL while the Fillies drop to 6-2 in league play, a half game out of first place.

The hosts ran off to a fast start in the contest and never looked back as the lead withstood a late fourth quarter rally by the Fillies.

"we played an excellent first half and turned in three good quarters," Rick Stackhouse, the Vikings coach, said. "They were without their big girl inside and that helped us out, but I can't take anything away from our girls great effort."

Mo Valley League

The Lady Vikings finished the contest with four players in double figures and the fast start gained them a 16-7 advantage after the first eight minutes.

Missy Koteas pumped in 13 points in the winning cause while Mary Murray and Lisa Callahan both tallied 12 and Brenda Orrick chipped in 12.

The Vikings hot streak continued in the second period as the score jumped to 32-18 at the intermission. Glendale made its final good run in the third frame coming out with a 43-26 advantage.

The hosts were able to maintain their lead through the 3:00 mark of the final quarter. However, poor shooting at the line enabled the Fillies to mount a charge.

"We were up by 18 with under three minutes to play," Stackhouse said. "Then we went three-for-11 from the foul line in the period and they started to come back. Fortunately, they ran out of time and our team effort paid off."

The junior varsity contest was also won by the Vikings 24-14.

Glendale is now 10-4 on the season and will step out of league play tomorrow to travel to Tyrone.

Lady Vikings Hold Lead In MVL Race

WESTOVER — The Glendale Area High School is atop the Moshannon Valley girls basketball league after holding off the hosting Harmony Owls last night 51-42. The Lady Vikings, 7-1, are one-half game ahead of Northern Cambria (7-2).

Missy Koteas starred for the Vikings with 28 points, hitting 11-21 from the field. Glendale head coach Rick Stackhouse credited the senior for her outstanding performance.

"She worked hard tonight, she picked up the slack," said Stackhouse, noting the absence of two starters. "Missy never really dominated any one period, she was steady through the whole game."

The Vikings had their hands full with the Owls who have come closer and closer to winning their first league game. Owl standouts Korenna Trout and Tammy Neff hit double figures in the contest, sinking 14 and 11 points, respectively.

The contest was tight throughout the first half as Glendale led 14-12 after the first frame and then by a one-point 23-22 edge.

A slow third quarter for the Owls gave their guests a 40-30 advantage and the Vikings held on for the victory.

"I was just happy to win on the road," added Stackhouse. "They did it with a makeshift lineup, but it's a win. (Brenda) Orrick (15 points) and (Kristine) Vereshack both had decent games," noted the coach.

The Owls (1-10 overall), still in search of their first league win will host DuBois Central Friday. The Vikings will travel to Curwensville on the same evening. Both contests are on the MVL slate.

Lady Vikings Hold Off Black Damsels

By John Lazor

Progress Sports Writer

AMESVILLE — The first place Glendale Lady Vikings overcame a tremendous 37 point-17-rebound effort by Moshannon Valley senior Kelly Gossar to edge the Damsel 50-47 in a Moshannon Valley League girls basketball tussle last night.

In winning, the Lady Vikings improve their first place record to 9-1 with a one-game lead on Northern Cambria going into their final two contests.

Even with the loss, which lowered the MVL record to 3-6, the Damsels gave Glendale all they could handle.

Glendale coach Rick Stackhouse was just relieved to see his team escape with the victory.

"I felt Lisa Callahan played a good game for us," said Stackhouse. "I was disappointed in our defensive effort, especially in the first half when we had a chance to put the game away.

"Mo Valley played a good all-around ball game and Gossar played a fantastic one."

Damsel coach Mick Patkalitsky was extremely proud of the effort he got from his squad.

"Tonight our girls showed a lot of character," Patkalitsky said. "We certainly had our opportunity to win but we just came up a little short. I'm just so darn proud of our effort."

The Lady Vikings hit Mo Valley early with a full-court press and took control as Callahan fired in nine first-quarter points with Glendale jumping ahead 19-8 after eight minutes.

Glendale continued to increase their lead, which moved to 25-12 midway through the second period, when Gossar began to assert herself.

The Damsels ran off 10 straight points with Gossar bagging eight of them to cut the Glendale advantage to 25-22 late in the period.

The Lady Vikings managed to build their lead back to 32-24 by intermission with a couple more points off the press.

In the third stanza, the Lady Vikings managed to hold onto a six-to-eight-point bulge until the Damsels, on a Gossar offensive rebound and layup, cut the deficit to 44-40 heading onto the final period.

The last quarter turned into a defensive struggle with the Damsels cutting the lead to one point at several different times, the last coming with 1:18 to go. Missy Koteas' two foul shots with 30 seconds remaining iced the contest.

Callahan led Glendale in scoring with 19 points while Brenda Orrick tossed in 11 and Mary Murray added 10.

Lisa Lutz's eight points supported Gossar's overwhelming 37-point performance, which was another of her school records.

In the junior varsity scuffle, Glendale bested Mo Valley 27-20 behind Brenda Braniff's 11 points.

Both teams return to action tonight with the Lady Vikings, now 13-5 overall, entertaining non-league foe Penns Manor while the Damsels travel to DuBois Central for another MVL contest.

BELLWOOD — The Glendale Lady Viking basketball team was on the road last night as they fell to Bellwood-Antis 38-32.

Glendale and Bellwood fought to a 19-19 tie at the half, but the Lady Blue Devils used an 8-3 scoring margin in the third quarter to capture the win.

Missy Koteas led the Vikes as she netted 11 while Brenda Orrick added 11 markers.

The Lady Blue Devils didn't place a player in double figures as they used team balance to inch past the Vikes.

In the J.V. contest Glendale was able to get the close win at 22-20.

Tonight the Lady Vikes will be at home as they host West Branch in a Moshannon Valley League game.

On the season Glendale is 14-7 overall and 9-2 in the MVL. Currently tied for the top spot in the MVL, Glendale must defeat the Lady Warriors if they want to at least tie for top honors. If Curwensville can beat Northern Cambria tonight and Glendale wins, the Vikes win the league outright.

Glendale Bests West Branch To Stay On Top

FLINTON — The Glendale High School girls basketball squad battled West Branch for a hard-fought 54-33 win in the Moshannon Valley League loop last night.

Missy Koteas led the Lady Vikings with 20 points and Brenda Orrick and Lisa Callahan helped out with 10 points each to front the hosts. Tracy Dixon's three three-point shots paced the Lady Warriors.

Glendale head coach Rick Stackhouse said he liked what he saw from his squad as they prepare to settle the final league standings.

"We had a good game. Everybody did what I wanted them to do and that was to give 100 percent on the court."

The Vikings scored 17 points in the first quarter and 14 in the second to take a 31-15 lead at halftime.

The Warriors head coach Stan Solarczyk took time to thank a certain group of West Branch roundballers, his seniors.

"I'd just like to thank Bethany Hoffman, Teri Mandel and Georgia Rice for the time and effort they've put in. We really appreciate it and I wish them the best."

The Warriors finish the MVL slate for the year with a 2-10 mark and 4-18 overall.

The Vikings travel to Barnesboro to meet Northern Cambria to break the tie for tops in the league. Both are 10-2 with the Colts having the home floor advantage on a preseason draw. Game time is 7:30.

BARNESBORO — A splendid effort by junior Missy Koteas gave Glendale the regular-season championship of the Moshannon Valley League Monday night.

Koteas, who scored a game-high 23 points, hit a 10-foot jumper with eight seconds left in overtime to give Glendale (11-2 in league play, 16-7 overall) its final margin of victory, 41-40.

"Missy Koteas played an outstanding game for us," said Glendale Coach Rick Stackhouse. "It was the first time Glendale has ever won the Moshannon Valley League girls' championship, and the players are really happy about it."

Carol Holtz, who paced Northern Cambria with 16 points, had put the hosts ahead by one point by converting a pair of free throws with 15 seconds remaining.

Glendale will play the league's fourth-place team — either Curwensville or Moshannon Valley — in the semifinals of the league championship series Wednesday night at Glendale High School.

FLINTON — The Glendale girls advanced to the championship game of the Moshannon Valley League Wednesday night by thumping visiting Curwensville 45-24.

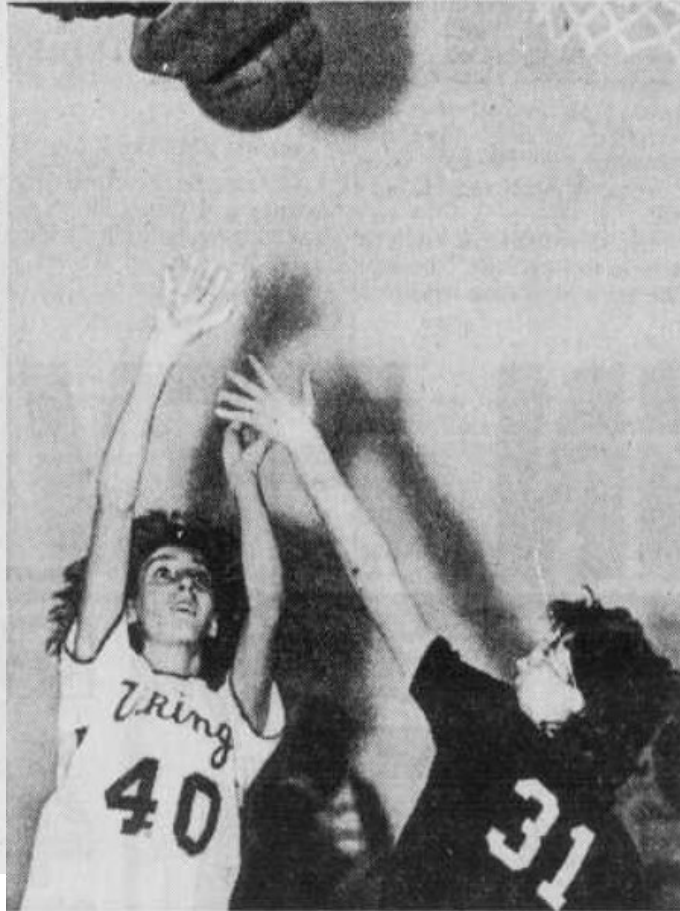

"We came out strong in the first quarter and got some nice perimeter shooting," said Glendale Coach Rick Stackhouse.

Stackhouse singled out the performance of Stacy Muse as the key to the team's 17th win in 24 tries.

"She usually only gives us four or six points and tonight we got 12 out of her," said Stackhouse. "We also got nice games from Brenda Orrick (12 points) and Lisa Callahan (11 points)."

Glendale will play Northern Cambria, which defeated DuBois Central Christian, Friday night at home for the title. It will be the fourth time the two teams have faced each other this season. Glendale holds a 2-1 edge.

"We just beat them this past Monday by two at their place and this one will be at home," said Stackhouse. "It will be
