1989-1990 Season

Lady Vikes Have Quality, Not Quantity

Melanie Ford takes over the Glendale Lady Vikings' basketball program this season, and with five returning letter winners she is optimistic about the 1989-90 season.

After two years as an assistant, Ford has some talent on hand but must overcome a lack of experience by her reserves.

"We don't have much depth. We're very young. The five starters have to pull the slack. Hopefully what they do will rub off on the young kids," Ford commented.

Glendale's starting frontcourt figures to be junior Brenda Braniff, tallest player on the team at 5-8, and sophomore Jen Wagner.

Ford will go with a three-guard attack, anchored by sophomore Sherri Frisco and seniors Lisa Callahan and Jenny Keith.

Producing a balance of inside and outside play is a key, according to Ford.

"We have to be able to get the ball inside and our guards have to be able to penetrate and make things happen. So far we haven't been able to do that," Ford said.

The Lady Viking guards will be counted on to provide an up-tempo offense, according to Ford. "We want to run the floor."

After the five letter winners there is virtually no experience on the Glendale squad, but Ford said it is vital that the substitutes she does use make contributions.

"Nicole Smith (5-7 sophomore) and Jennifer Koteas (5-6 freshman) are my first two subs and they must come through," Ford noted.

In spite of the lack of depth, Ford is genuinely upbeat about the chances of her Lady Vikings entering the new season.

"If we execute well and come to win we should do very well. The potential is there for a good season if we execute," Ford said.

Glendale hits the court again Thursday night when they host the Bellwood-Antis Lady Blue Devils.

BARNESBORO — The Lady Vikes of Glendale High School opened the 1989-90 basketball season with a big 64-22 win over Northern Cambria.

"Good, real good," was how Ford described her feeling after the win. "We didn't get to scrimmage anyone so there was some nervousness before the game, but we came out and played some real good basketball."

In previous years the Glendale win over Northern Cambria would have meant a lot in the Moshannon Valley League, but Northern Cambria has departed the MVL so to compete in the Laurel Highlands League.

Lady Vikings Leave Tide Out To Dry

By Jody Kurash
Sports Writer

CURWENSVILLE—Victory eluded the Curwensville Lady Tide once again Friday night as they fell prey to the Glendale Lady Vikings. Glendale hustled their way to a 67-44 win over Curwensville in an action-packed match.

Both teams played very aggressively; a fact that pleased both coaches.

Glendale coach Melanie Ford was happy with the victory. "We really hustled, we were the aggressive team in the game," said Ford. "We are finally starting to come together as a team".

On the other side of the coin, Wendy Bloom was also pleased with her team's performance. "We played hard, this is the most hustling we did all year," said Bloom. "I was very pleased, we gave it our all but we just came up short."

Coach Bloom was expecting a tough game from the Lady Vikings. "Glendale is good team," said Bloom. "We expected a tough game."

The game started out with a see-saw first quarter. Stacy Wood scored the first basket of her 27 points to put the Tide out front 2-0. Glendale came back with two quick baskets to take the lead 4-2.

Wood connected on a foul shot and Molly McFadden, who was all alone under the basket, sank in a two-pointer to put the Tide ahead 5-4.

Both teams traded baskets, but Glendale was able put in three quick baskets to retake lead 16-9 at the end of the first quarter.

Glendale started out the second quarter with a quick basket from Lisa Callahan. The second period proved to be a very low scoring one, due to poor shooting and rebounding from both teams.

The second half came to a close with baskets by Tina Catalano and Jeannie Terza and two consecutive fouls against Glendale in the final seconds. Curwensville was given four free-throw opportunities, but they were only able to cash in for one point.

Glendale was able to hold Curwensville to only three points in the second period, all of which were scored by Catalano. The Lady Vikings led 26-12 at halftime.

Coach Bloom felt her team's second-quarter performance hurt their chances. "We fell asleep in the second quarter," said Bloom. "Otherwise, We'd be right back in the ballgame."

When the Lady Tide came out in the second half they were a changed team. They launched a tremendous comeback that would have Glendale running until late in the third quarter.

Jen Dominy and McFadden opened the quarter with two fast baskets. The Tide continued to roll as Wood hit a three-pointer that not only raised the score but her team's momentum as well. The Tide was now within nine points of Glendale.

Sherri Frisco hit a free throw to move Vikings ahead by ten, but Wood fired back with a layup that moved Curwensville within eight.

Jenny Keith hit a basket to increase the lead for the Vikings, but it was Wood again who hit another layup to move the game back to only an eight-point spread.

Glendale hit a foul shot for one point that widened their lead by nine, But the Tide rushed in as Tina Cavalano connected on a basket to make it a seven point ballgame

Coach Ford called a time out to regroup her team. "We were cold for a while in the third quarter. We missed some easy shots," said Ford. "We buckled up and started hustling again."

Lisa Callahan and Brenda Braniff came back with some quick points for the Vikings as they began to take control of the game. Glendale was ahead by a comfortable 40-26 at the end of the third quarter.

The final period was a high-scoring eight minutes with both teams combining for 45 points.

Wood scored 16 points for the Tide. Frisco led the Vikes with 10 points in the fourth quarter.

Curwensville hit two three pointers to combine for a total of 18 points, but it just wasn't enough as Glendale rolled past them with 27 final period points

Glendale girls improved their record to 4-5 and Curwensville remains winless on the season.

Glendale's jayvees were also victorious. They beat the Lady Tide 46-12.

Jennifer Kotéas and Nicole Smith connected for 11 points each for the Lady Vikings.

Heather Humberson scored half of the Tide's 12 points including one trifecta.

FLINTON—Cheryl Cervenak converted two free throws with nine seconds left to give Moshannon Valley a 50-49 girls' basketball win over Glendale last night.

Cervenak drew a foul as she drove the baseline, and the Black Damsels' sophomore center calmly converted both ends of the one-on-one for the winning points.

Mo Valley remains undefeated in the Mo Valley League at 3-0 (3-7 overall), while Glendale falls to 2-1, 4-6.

"It was an old-fashioned backyard rivalry," said Black Damsels' coach Mick Patkalitsky, "both teams played hard and both coaching staffs coached hard. All our girls played well."

"We didn't execute very well," said Glendale coach Melanie Ford, "Mo Valley took it to the hoop and we couldn't stop them. You have to give them credit, they played a real good game."

Cervenak sank 12 of 15 free throws to lead the scoring with 24 points, and also found time to pull down 19 rebounds. "She carried us," said Patkalitsky, "I kept challenging her, and she paced us in scoring and rebounding."

Lisa DeLucia added 10 points and seven rebounds for the Damsels, and Lee Ann Cervenak contributed seven assists and five steals.

"Jenny Keith (14 points) played a real nice game both offensively and defensively," said Ford, "but we had two starters, Brenda Braniff and Sherri Frisco, who were ill with the flu. And we missed some crucial free throws in the second half."

Mo Valley has another tough one tonight, with DuBois Central Christian, 9-0, visiting Amesville. Glendale travels to Ebensburg Friday to take on Bishop Carroll.
