FLINTON — Last season, Glendale Lady Viking head basketball coach Andy Bloom decided to call it quits, leaving the door open for first-time head coach Renee McQuown to take over the reins.

McQuown, who teaches at Glendale, has coached junior varsity and junior high teams at Glendale in the past, but is making her first step into the varsity level.

She will take over a team that went 12-13 last year and returns just four letterwinners to the squad.

Senior Nikki Keith and juniors, Amanda Corson, Jean Kaufman and Jill Miles return to the Lady Vikings this season and will be Glendale's starting five, along with senior Kristin Keith.

Those returning five will be joined by 12 other players, including 10 freshmen this season.

With so many players on her roster, McQuown will be emphasizing team unity for the 2000 season.

"These girls are used to playing with only seven or eight players on the team," McQuown said. "A lot of them are used to playing the whole game without someone to substitute for them, so it's going to be really different this year. That's why we want to make playing as a team a priority. Basketball is a team sport, not just for one player."

Glendale will have to play as a team if they want to successfully replace Elecia Kruse, whom the Lady Vikings lost to graduation after last season.

"A lot of them are used to playing the whole game without someone to substitute for them, so it's going to be really different this year. That's why we want to make playing as a team a priority. Basketball is a team sport, not just for one player."

Glendale will have to play as a team if they want to successfully replace Elecia Kruse, whom the Lady Vikings lost to graduation after last season.

Kruse became Glendale High School's leading scorer with 1,418 points, breaking the old record of 1,243 points by Sherri (Frisco) Campbell.

The former Lady Viking guard, who is now playing basketball at Lafayette, averaged 22.1 points per game last year, while tallying a total of 531 points.

Glendale also must replace Lyncoia Sinclair, who averaged 3.9 points per game for the Lady Vikings last year.

With those two seniors gone and just two seniors this year, McQuown will look to her letterwinners and Kristin Keith to lead her team this year.

"We are definitely looking for those five to step up this year,"

McQuown said. "But everyone knows that this year they will all have to put their best foot forward and step up."

With two scrimmages behind them, McQuown thinks that her team is on its way to being successful.

"We had some scrimmages and the girls played well," she said. "They just needed some confidence and needed to know that they can do this without Elecia. We are pretty small height-wise, but I think that we will do well."

With tough opponents in the Moshannon Valley and Juniata Valley Leagues, McQuown's crew is looking forward to games with rivals Moshannon Valley (Dec. 15 and Jan. 26) and Harmony (Dec. 18 and Feb. 14).

"We want to continue to do well in the Mo Valley League," said McQuown. "We are going to continue with Coach Bloom's program, because it will be easier for me to learn those plays than for them to learn mine. We have brought some new things in though."

The Lady Vikes will begin their season on Friday when they travel to the Cambria Heights tournament to face off against host Cambria Heights, Bellefonte and Northern Bedford.

Miles leads Lady Vikings past Lady Warriors

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Writer

ALLPORT — The Glendale Lady Vikings were without senior starters Nikki and Kristen Keith in their game against West Branch Monday night, but as it turns out they didn't really need them.

Glendale's Jill Miles scored 32 points, racked up 18 rebounds and stole the ball seven times en route to a 67-21 win over the Lady Warriors at West Branch.

"Jill did an awesome job tonight," said Lady Viking head coach Renee McQuown. "She sets her mind to a goal and she goes after it. She was tops in everything for us tonight. And that proves just what a team leader she is for us. It showed tonight with our two seniors out and having to start two freshman. She really stepped up."

The Lady Vikings started out early, jumping out to a 9-4 lead early in the first quarter.

That 9-4 lead would turn into a 16-0 run for Glendale that put the Lady Vikes up 25-4 early in the second quarter.

"We just didn't do anything right tonight," said West Branch head coach Stu Tripler. "They were down their two senior starters and they still came out and wanted to play basketball. We didn't play well and we just quit. We thought that we could play with them. But we got down early and we just lacked the mental toughness. It's a shame and it's something that we are going to have to work on. We deserve what we got and they deserve what they got. They played a great game and they hustled."

Glendale controlled the game the rest of the way, racking up 27 second-half points to West Branch's eight.

The Lady Vikings also netted 29 field goals on the night, compared to the Lady Warriors' seven.

Mary Buynak and Beth Shimmel led the Lady Warriors with seven points each.

Lady Viking guard Amanda Corson finished the night with 20 points, while teammates Jean Kaufman and Kaytee Gates finished with 10 and five points, respectively.

"This was one of our goals," said McQuown. "To keep the lead and not look back. We played well on the fast break tonight, and I think that's what gave us the edge. Plus they were making their lay-ups tonight. I think that it gives this team a real boost, especially going into our game against Mo Valley Friday."

West Branch came out on top of the Lady Vikings in the junior varsity game, 26-16. The Lady Warriors were led by Melissa Bosak, who notched 14 points, while Kellie Corman added 10 points on the night.

Crystal Sanders led Glendale with eight points.

West Branch falls to 0-5 on the season. The Lady Warriors travel to Bellwood-Antis on Thursday.

Glendale improved to 1-4 on the season. The Lady Vikes host Moshannon Valley on Friday.

December 15, 2000: MoValley 45 at Glendale 34

FLINTON — It looked as if the Moshannon Valley High School girls' basketball team was going to run away with Friday evening's game with Glendale in the fourth quarter. Melissa Reifer hit a jumper 25 seconds into the final stanza to put the Damsels up 35-22.

With their backs to the wall, the Lady Vikings didn't quit and battled back to within three with a 10-0 run over the next five minutes. That's when Mo Valley senior Katie Martin stepped up.

Martin tallied the final 10 Damsel points, outscoring Glendale 10-2 over the final 2:36 as Mo Valley outlasted the Lady Vikings 45-34. Martin finished with a game-high 23 points and six rebounds.

"Katie's a force," said Damsel head coach Brian Pelka. "She's our go-to girl. She hasn't been feeling well and didn't practice the last two days. That's why I didn't start her tonight. I told her if she felt OK, she was going to get in, but I wasn't going to start her and she understood.

With the victory, Mo Valley improved to 4-2 overall and 3-1 in the Juniata Valley League. It was the Damsels' first Moshannon Valley League game. Glendale fell to 1-5 overall, 1-1 in the MVL and 1-3 in the JVL.

"I think we are potentially a better team than we showed tonight, but a win is a win and very important, especially in this league," said Pelka. "I'm happy. This is a tough place to play.

"This is a good rivalry," continued Pelka. "Any classic rivalry, whether it's Alabama-Auburn or Pitt-Penn State, you can throw the records out the window. It will be a grudge match.

That's what this game was tonight. We knew it was going to be tooth-and-nail. We showed a lot of character out there."

"We started three juniors and two freshmen," said Lady Viking head coach Renee McQuown. "We lack some experience and it shows. We missed our two seniors (Nikki and Kristin Keith) tonight. I don't think we have anything to be ashamed of. They had a lot of height over us and they took it to the hoop."

Glendale used strong foul shooting to make its comeback. The Lady Vikings were 7-of-10 from the free throw line during their run. Jill Miles, which led Glendale with 19 points, hit six of the seven foul shots.

"Our foul shots came up short in the first half," said McQuown. "(Foul shooting) is what brought us back in the second half."

"Their foul shooting kept them in the game," said Pelka.

Martin stopped the run with a layup at the 2:36 mark and then added another to extend the Damsels' lead to 39-32 with 1:28 remaining. Miles connected on two free throws to make it a five-point margin with 51 seconds to go, but Martin sealed the win with a conventional three-point play with 16 ticks left on the clock.

"I was saying to myself, 'I can't believe this is happening,'" said Pelka of the Glendale comeback. "It seemed like we had the game under control. We weren't blowing them out, but we had a pretty decent lead."

"We have goals we set in the locker room for each game," said McQuown. "One of those goals is to never give up. They're determined not to let anything bother them this year and to not get frustrated. When we get frustrated, that's when everything goes to pot. They took it upon themselves that they were going to give it their all and they did."

The two teams battled back-and-forth in the first quarter. Glendale led 9-8 at the end of the first quarter.

Mo Valley used an 8-0 run at the start of the second quarter to take a 16-9 advantage with 3:57 left in the first half. Katie Martin had six of the points during the run.

The Lady Vikings cut the Damsel lead to 16-12 with a bucket from Miles and a free throw from Amanda Corson. Mo Valley responded with a layup from Susan Holencik and a free throw from Brenda Queen to take a 19-12 lead. The Damsels led 21-13 at the break.

Also hitting double figures for Glendale was Corson with 12. In addition to her 19 points, Miles added nine rebounds. Trisha Martin led Mo Valley with eight boards.

The Damsels won the junior varsity game 23-11. Allison Gmerek and Megan Washell led Mo Valley with six points each. Crystal Killion tallied four to lead Glendale.

Both teams are back in action Monday with Mo Valley League road contests. Glendale travels to Harmony, while Mo Valley visits West Branch.

Glendale tops Lady Trojans in stunning fashion

MOUNT UNION — Glendale's Jill Miles scored 37 points against Mount Union Friday night to tie the single-game scoring record set by former Lady Viking Elecia Kruse during the 1999-2000 season.

Miles' career-best game helped the Lady Vikings to a 55-49 win over the Lady Trojans.

"It was an unbelievable game," said Glendale head coach Renee McQuown. "They went out and did an awesome job. They played as a team tonight. Our foul shooting won the game."

The Lady Vikings went 25-of-37 from the line. Miles tallied 13 of those points.

It's the second time this season the two teams have met. Mount Union won the first matchup, 45-37, on Dec. 6.

No other Glendale player scored in double digits, but six of seven players had two points or more on the night.

Jamie Endres scored 14 points to lead Mount Union.

The Lady Vikings improved to 2-12 on the season.

The Lady Trojans won the junior varsity game, 55-49. Crystal Sanders led Glendale with five points.

January 25, 2001: Glendale 51 at Curwensville 21

CURWENSVILLE — It's the little things that count.

And when you add up all those little things, it can turn a close game to a 30-point loss.

"It was a combination of little things that are killing us, they are eating us alive," said Lady Golden Tide head coach Randy Hale after he saw his team drop to 0-16 (0-6 in the Moshannon Valley League) with a 51-21 loss to the visiting Glendale Lady Vikings at Patton Hall last night. "I have to give Glendale credit, they really came out ready to play and did the little things that we didn't."

Glendale jumped out to an early four-point lead with a jump shot from Jean Kaufman four seconds into the game and two free throws from Jill Miles in the first quarter. The Golden Tide defense held the Lady Vikings to six points the rest of the stanza, giving Glendale a 10-3 lead going into the second.

The Lady Vikings scored eight straight points and outscored the Lady Tide 14-8 in the second period to take a 24-11 lead into intermission.

Juniors Kaufman and Miles paced the Lady Vikings combining for 20 points in the first half. Miles led all scorers with 23 and Kaufman chipped in 10, all of hers coming in the first half. For the Lady Tide, Kris Penrose led the team with 10 points.

"I thought we got off to a slow start to the game," said Glendale head coach Renee McQuown. "We missed way too many lay ups (15) in the first half. But we went in at halftime, made some changes and we saw our old team and some fire in the second half."

"I think Jean had her best night tonight," McQuown added. "She did well on both sides, both offensively and defensively."

Hale said his team had more confidence coming into the game after a 44-12 junior varsity victory over Grier, but it did not show on the court.

"We came in with confidence, but we didn't play like a team with confidence," he said. "That is something we have to get over, we have to play with confidence."

The second half started like the first one, with a Lady Viking field goal by Nikki Keith on their first possession en route to a 24-point third quarter. The Lady Viking defense held Curwensville to five points in the third stanza to take a 48-16 lead into the final quarter.

McQuown said she told her starters if they didn't want to play hard, there were a bench full of players who would and said the girls then had the attitude they were going out to play. She said the bench for the Lady Vikings played pretty well and the game gave the reserves "some good playing time."

Hale said the Lady Tide team lost some of its momentum in the second half because of "tired legs and tired minds" after playing its third game in as many days. He said Penrose fouling out early in the third also had a "big effect" on the game and Courtney Bailor did a good job in stepping up.

"Courtney hustles every game," he said. "She works hard and has a high level of commitment."

"We just didn't play like a team," Hale added. "And I will take most of the blame for that; I should be harder on them. We do have the talent, but I haven't showed them how to use that talent."

Hale added that the Lady Tide defense once again was a highlight of the game and that the offense also moved the ball pretty well.

"The main thing is I don't want the girls to get down on themselves," he said. "We just have to keep going and we will be fine. Next year, we will be two or three times better than we are this year; I guarantee it."

The Lady Vikings tip off again tonight at Moshannon Valley. The Lady Tide gets the week-end off and hits the court Monday when they host St. Mary's for a 7 p.m. start.

AMESVILLE — After a one-point win at the buzzer earlier this week over Mount Union and a stunning 14-point upset win over Harmony, the Damsels of Moshannon Valley were unsure of what was in store for them in their game against Moshannon Valley League rival Glendale Friday night.

What the Damsels got was another emotionally charged game that came down to the final minutes.

Moshannon Valley (10-7 overall, 5-0 in the Moshannon Valley League and 3-1 in the second cycle of the Juniata Valley League) rallied from four points down late in the fourth quarter to take a 50-45 win over the Lady Vikings (4-13, 3-3, 2-2).

"We were tested again and we came through," said Damsel head coach Brian Pelka of his comeback kids. "It's not the kind of situation you want to be in, but it was a good test of our resolve. It was a little nerve-racking on the bench in the fourth quarter. I got my first gray hair during that Mount Union game, but tonight I think I got my second one."

After a first half that saw Moshannon Valley hold no more than a three-point lead on the Lady Vikings, both teams were asked to step up their play in the locker rooms by their respective coaches.

Glendale's Jill Miles took the challenge to heart, knocking down a short jump shot to give Glendale its first lead of the game, 25-23.

Miles went on to score Glendale's next 15 points, keeping the Lady Vikings in front, 38-36 early in the fourth quarter.

"She is a team leader," said Glendale head coach Renee McQuown. "She gets it in her head that she is going to do it and she does it. It's nice to see that she is only a junior. But truthfully, I thought that they all did an excellent job. Jill stuck out tonight, because she was able to move around the Martins. But she always does a fantastic job for us. We can always count on Jill."

Jean Kaufman put the Lady Vikes up by four with a nice layup over the head of Mo Valley's Brenda Queen.

With less than three minutes left in the fourth and the Damsels down by four, Katie Martin tipped in the ball to bring the game within two.

After another jump shot by Miles put Glendale up by four again, Queen sank a jump shot that lit the spark for the Mo Valley comeback.

Melissa Reifer got the chance to put the Damsels ahead by one after being fouled on the three-point line by Nikki Keith.

Reifer tied the game at 42 after sinking her first two shots from the line.

"We seemed down for a while," said Pelka. "We didn't have any spirit or any emotion. It was like we pushed a button. I demanded that they respond. The girls on the bench were demanding them to respond. And they did. You have to give credit to Glendale though. They really took it to us. They came and played tough. Luckily, we remained calm down the stretch and took care of business."

An offensive foul on the ensuing inbounds pass put the Damsels back on the charity stripe and allowed Queen the chance to once again give the Damsels momentum.

After sinking both shots, Queen put the Damsels up by two, 44-42.

The Damsels once again stepped up the aggressive defense they had played at the beginning of the game, knocking away two tying shots from the Lady Vikes.

With time winding down, Glendale fouled Katie Martin, who made the Damsels 6-of-7 in the fourth quarter and sank both shots to give Mo Valley the four-point lead.

A late foul on Jill Miles allowed Glendale the chance to pull within two and put the score at 46-44.

"I told the girls they have nothing to be ashamed of," McQuown said. "When our five girls can go out and play his 10 girls and only have a five-point deficit, I am pleased with that. They had problems early on and we took advantage of that. We just got the short end in the fourth quarter."

As the clock ticked past the 1:20 mark, the Lady Vikes fouled Amy Curry to stop the clock. Curry sank both shots to put the Damsels lead back at four.

With less than a minute left, Curry was again fouled by Glendale. She sank both shots to make the Damsels an incredible 12-of-13 in the fourth and seal the win.

"Amy's free throws were key," said Pelka. "She went up there and did her job. It is nice to see someone not get rattled in a situation like that. It sealed the deal for us. But I think that everyone stepped up tonight. I am definitely pleased with the win."

Moshannon Valley also took home a win in the junior varsity game, 33-16. Jenny Charney led the Damsels with 13 points, while Ashley O'Shell led the Lady Vikings with seven points.

Glendale hits the hardwood again on Tuesday when it travels to Penns Valley.

The Damsels return to action on Wednesday when they host Moshannon Valley League rival West Branch.

February 14, 2001: Harmony 45 at Glendale 23

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Writer

FLINTON — If the Harmony girls' basketball team had passed out little candy hearts at the end of its huge win over rival Glendale on Wednesday night, they probably would have been the ones that said "Thank You" and "I'm Sorry."

The Lady Owls marched into the Lady Vikings home gym on Senior Night and turned the place upside down, taking home a 45-23 win that kept Harmony alive for the Moshannon Valley League championship and helped them improve to 21-2 on the season.

"I don't ever remember us having a defensive effort like that," said Lady Owl head coach Janet Hess with a smile. "We put a lot of pressure on the basketball. And fortunately, their shots just weren't going in. I know they played last night and that causes a little wear and tear when you have to play back-to-back like that. I am just really proud of the girls. They played extremely well tonight."

Hess' team came ready to play, going on a 15-0 run after the Lady Vikings took a 2-0 lead to start the game on two foul shots by Jill Miles.

Harmony's first run was stopped with 3:18 left in the second quarter when Jean Kaufman sank one of two foul shots for the Lady Vikings.

That would be the last points Glendale put on the board until there was just 2:48 left in the third quarter when Kaufman would again go to the charity stripe and sink one of her two allotted shots.

Unfortunately for the Lady Vikings, by then the Lady Owls had already been on their second run of the night, a 14-0 run that put Harmony up 29-4 late in the third quarter.

It was definitely not the way Glendale head coach Renee McQuown had planned to send her two seniors out in their last game in a Lady Vikings uniform.

"After playing Bellwood last night, the girls were just physically drained," said McQuown. "It's been a long, hard season for them. It took us two quarters of the year for them to get the confidence they needed. But they are a good group of girls. I just wish we could have sent Nikki and Kristin out in a better way."

Glendale held Harmony to just two more points in the third, while the Lady Vikes scored five points on their first two field goals of the night, when Miles took in a layup and Amanda Corson drained a three-pointer to set the score at 31-9 at the end of three quarters.

Both teams had their highest scoring quarters in the fourth, with each scoring 14 points to set the final at 45-23.

Glendale scored seven of its 14 points in the fourth quarter on foul shots. In fact, the Lady Vikings scored 13 of their 23 total points on foul shots.

"The girls have really improved on their foul shooting," said McQuown. "That was one of our goals at the beginning of the year — to work on our foul shooting percentage. They have really done well with that."

Jill Miles led the Lady Vikings with 12 points, including a stellar 7-of-8 from the line.

Harmony's Bethany Smith led all scorers with 14 points and eight rebounds on the night. The only other player in double digits was Smith's teammate Megan Weakland, who tallied 10 points, eight rebounds and four blocks in the game.

All five of the Lady Owl starters notched points in the win, including starting point guard Kelly Homerski, who scored seven points while racking up four assists and three steals. Teammate Ashley Wolfe also posted seven points and five steals on the night, while Misti McKeen added two points of her own for Harmony.

"Everybody played well tonight," said Hess. "All of the starters got on the board and played outstanding defensive as well. They are just a well-rounded bunch of girls. I think the key thing for us was that we really put pressure on them defensively and forced them to try and go middle where our defense was. That limited the opportunities that they got. They really handled themselves well tonight. They are great kids, and I really can't say enough how proud I am of them."

With the win, the Lady Owls improved to 20-2 overall and 6-1 in Moshannon Valley League play. They host Moshannon Valley Friday night. A win would force a one-game playoff with the Damsels for the title on Saturday.

The Lady Owls will also travel to Hollidaysburg on Wednesday to play fifth-seeded Juniata Valley in the first round of the District 6 Class A playoffs as the fourth-seeded team.

The Glendale Lady Vikings end their season with a 7-17 overall record, 4-4 in the MVL and 1-8 in the second cycle of the Juniata Valley League.

Glendale

Jill Miles, Glendale — As the area's leading scorer this season, Miles averaged a jaw-dropping 20.1 points a game and racked up 483 total points. In fact, Miles only had one game where she didn't score in double digits. The lanky junior was also 135-of-194 from the charity stripe, making her a threat from every angle offensively.

She also became part of the Glendale record book when she tied Elecia Kruse's game-high points mark with a 37-point performance against Mount Union. Miles also went over the 30-point mark with a 32-point game against West Branch. The Lady Vikings also appreciated Miles on the defensive side, where the junior capitalized on her size and quickness to grab the rebound or steal the ball from an unsuspecting opponent.
