Under second-year head coach McQuown, Lady Vikes gunning for MVL title

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Writer

FLINTON — After taking over the Glendale girls' basketball squad last season, head coach Renee McQuown took the team to a 6-18 record.

This year, McQuown hopes to be more competitive in both the Moshannon Valley League and the Juniata Valley League.

To do that she will look to her five letter winners, seniors Amanda Corson, Jean Kaufman and Jill Miles and sophomores Kaytee Gates and Ashley O'Shell.

All five players enjoyed playing time last year, with all three seniors starting for the Lady Vikes.

"It's a nice strong group," said McQuown. "I am looking for those three seniors to give the leadership on the court."

This season Glendale has just 10 players on its roster, making a junior varsity team impossible, something quite different than last season when the Lady Vikes had 17 players.

Many of the ten freshmen that played last season didn't return and the Lady Vikes lost two starters, Nikki and Kristin Keith to graduation.

Miles, the Lady Vikes leading scorer last season with 483 points, needs just 76 points to become the second 1,000-point scorer in three years.

"Jill is just a leader in every aspect — scoring, support, rebounding — you name it she has been there. Jill has been our leading scorer and she will probably continue that this year."

The second-year head coach is also impressed with Corson and Kaufman as well.

"Amanda has really worked hard this year," McQuown said. "And her shot has really come along. Jean is a powerhouse on the court even though she is so little."

Although McQuown's three seniors are definite starters, the last two spots are up in the air right now.

"We have four sophomores that truthfully I don't know which one will start," McQuown stated. "Just because they all have been showing themselves in practice and they all have a chance."

All the girls will get to play, however, and most will see significant time in order to give the five starters a rest.

"We are going to use all of our capabilities this year and give the starting five girls a rest, because they deserve it," McQuown said. "The last couple of years they haven't been able to have a rest because we haven't had a bench. This year we have that capability."

And the Lady Vikings also have the capability to contend for the Moshannon Valley League crown. But to do that Glendale will have to work as a team, something that has become a main goal of the girls and their coach this season.

"We have some goals," stated McQuown. "We are really stressing a team concept. We worked on that over the summer. The games that we won they worked as a team, the ones we lost we didn't. They have really come a long that way. I think that you are going to see a different team than you have in the past couple of years."

Glendale will open up its season on Nov. 30 at the Cambria Heights Tip-Off Tournament against Ligonier Valley.

Miles reaches milestone in Lady Vikes' loss

FLINTON — The event that Glendale girls' basketball fans packed the gymnasium for on Friday night kept them in their seats until the fourth quarter despite the Lady Vikings', 58-45, loss to Juniata Valley.

Senior Jill Miles, who needed just 24 points to become the second 1,000-point scorer in three years at Glendale, sank a free throw in the fourth quarter for her 1,000th career point.

"It was really nice," said head coach Renee McQuown. "Some of the boys kept tally all night by holding up 24 plates. Every time she would get a point they would take one down.

Miles finished the night with 26 points, including 7-of-9 from the line.

"She just tore them up tonight," said McQuown. "I think the whole team played well."

The team stopped the game after Miles scored her 1,000th point to present her with a special game ball to mark her achievement.

Miles' teammates Amanda Corson and Kaytee Gates each added nine points for Glendale.

The Lady Vikes fell to 1-3 overall and 0-2 in the Juniata Valley League.

Glendale travels to Claysburg-Kimmel on Tuesday evening.

Lady Vikes hold off Lady Owls

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Writer

WESTOVER — After jumping out to a huge 17-2 lead at the end of the first quarter the Glendale girls' basketball team looked to be in position to score an easy win.

But don't tell that to Harmony, who bounced back to make the Lady Vikings work for their 52-45 victory on Monday evening in Westover.

"I guess every little bit helps in the beginning when it comes down to the end," Glendale coach Renee McQuown said of the late Harmony rally. "Our problem was that we were fatigued. We have some girls that are sick and that doesn't help. We always know that Harmony is going to play aggressive ball. I think that our foul shots in the end helped. Our press really helped, too. We had some nice turnovers that we were able to capitalize on."

Glendale went 11-for-14 from the foul line in the fourth quarter to help seal the win.

The Lady Vikes came out aggressive in the first quarter, breaking a 2-2 tie early to go on a 15-0 run on the Lady Owls.

"So far this season we have had a tendency to dig ourselves in at the beginning," said Harmony head coach Janet Hess. "What can you say, you have to come out ready to play and we were just on our heels all night."

Harmony bounced back in the second quarter, led by Misti McKeehen's 13 points. Teammate Ashley Brink also scored in the frame, while Glendale managed just four points to set the score at 21-17 in favor of the Lady Vikes going into halftime.

The Lady Vikes continued to dominate both sides of the ball, snatching the majority of rebounds and forcing plenty of Lady Owl turnovers with the press.

Glendale's leading scorer, Jill Miles had her best quarter of the night in the third frame, notching 12 points to give her team the 39-21 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Miles finished the night with 26 points and led all scorers in the game.

"Jill is the leader," said McQuown. "She isn't feeling well, but she was our scorer tonight. She did really well."

The Lady Owls seemed to have trouble containing Miles everywhere on the court.

"We have been working so hard on getting better on the defensive end and defensive boards and Jill just killed us," said Hess. "I don't know how many offensive rebounds she had. She did a good job. She is a tough player and she just hung in and we didn't put a body on her."

Glendale's Amanda Corson also had a good night for the Lady Vikes, tallying 13 points, including 6-of-8 from the foul line in the final quarter.

"Amanda has really stepped up and become a team leader," McQuown said. "I told her tonight at halftime that she had to set the pace and set the offense, which she did."

Corson and Miles' foul shots helped Glendale hold on to the lead, despite all attempts from the Lady Owls' outside shooter Desirre Spaid.

Spaid hit three treys and two baskets in the final minutes of the game to bring Harmony within eight points. McKeehen also tallied a three and two baskets in the fourth, but the Lady Owls ran out of time, setting the final at 52-45.

"Misti tries real hard," Hess said. "She is a competitor. She did good things for us tonight, but she will be the first to tell you she made some mistakes. And that's kind of where we are."

We are on a rollercoaster right now and fortunately we ended the game on a positive note. We didn't hang our heads and I think that's a good sign."

"We have been practicing being aggressive," stated McQuown. "I told them from now on we have to be aggressive all the way. They are getting better. They are getting more confident in the press. They are an aggressive team, they just don't always show it."

Glendale improved to 3-4 overall and 1-0 in the Moshannon Valley League with the win. The Lady Vikes return to the court on Wednesday when they travel to Amesville to face rival Moshannon Valley at 7 p.m.

Harmony, which fell to 3-3 overall and 0-1 in the MVL, will also face Moshannon Valley this week. The Lady Owls travel to Amesville on Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

December 19, 2001: Glendale 38 at MoValley 39

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Writer

AMESVILLE — The Moshannon Valley girls' basketball team shot just 7-of-14 from the foul line all night, but when it came down to needing the shots to win its game against Moshannon Valley League rival Glendale, the Damsels delivered.

Desrae Omo sank a foul shot with :29 left in the game to give Mo Valley a 39-38 victory Wednesday night.

The Damsels, who led by as many as 16 points in the first half, squandered the lead late in the fourth quarter where they were outscored 20-8 by the Lady Vikings.

"I hate these kinds of games," said Glendale head coach Renee McQuown. "If we would have played the first half like the second half, there wouldn't have been a problem. This is, of course, a league game and a rivalry and the girls were nervous. Unfortunately, it took the girls the whole first half to get their game running."

Mo Valley broke out to an early 4-0 lead thanks to Trisha Martin's two baskets.

Ashley O'Shell brought the Lady Vikings within one point when she sank a three, but it was as close as Glendale would get to the Damsels the rest of the first half. Moshannon Valley gradually pulled out to a 24-13 lead at halftime.

After a dismal third quarter where they were outscored, 7-5, the Lady Vikes warmed up in the fourth quarter.

"It was one of those games where it sneaks up on you, and before you realize it, they were within six or seven points," Damsel head coach Brian Pelka said. "As soon as O'Shell hit the three (to make the score 35-31) I knew that it was anybody's game. Luckily we made the plays and it came out in our favor."

After Brenda Queen tallied a basket to start the final frame, O'Shell tipped in two baskets of her own to bring the Lady Vikes within 11 points of the 33-22 Damsel lead.

Senior guard Amanda Corson then fired up the Glendale defense, stealing the ball and dishing it to teammate Jill Miles, who missed the basket but was fouled in the process.

Miles hit both of her foul shots and after a basket by Susan Holencik, put in two more with a jump shot. Corson added two points of her own after taking advantage of another Damsel turnover.

"She gave us some nice three-pointers and some nice passes when we needed it," McQuown said of Corson. "She never gave up. On defense she literally shut Omo down. She kept the girls charged up. She has really stepped up the last couple of games."

O'Shell drained her first trey of the game with less than two minutes to play to bring the score to 35-31.

A basket by Holencik on the rebound put Mo Valley up 36-31, but Miles took the ball down the court and in for two while being fouled. Miles hit the free throw to bring the Lady Vikes within two points with the score at 36-34.

Miles was again fouled with just under a minute to play in the game, but converted on just one of her two allotted shots to bring the score to 36-35.

Queen gave the Damsels a 38-35 lead by going 2-for-2 from the line, but Corson drained a three with less than :40 left in the game to tie the score at 38-38.

The Lady Vikes had a chance to put the ball in the net, but couldn't get it to fall, and Martin rebounded to give the Damsels possession.

On the way up the court Omo was fouled by Corson, her fifth of the night, and went to the line to shoot two free throws.

Omo missed the first, but the second dropped through the net to give the Damsels the one-point lead.

"It was good because she missed the first one and it didn't phase her," said Pelka of Omo. "She came back and stuck with her form and it was a good shot."

With less than :18 left in the game, the Damsels recovered possession after a jump ball, but the Lady Vikes stole the ball and took it down for one final attempt at the net.

The Damsels took possession of the ball after a jump ball and ran out the final seconds to nab the 39-38 victory.

"We got a little impetuous there," Pelka said of getting the ball back with 18 seconds left on the clock. "We started dribbling when we should have looked to pass and waited for the foul because we were in the double bonus. But I guess in situations like that your instincts guide you the wrong way. We didn't choke at the end, I just think we made some poor decisions."

"They have nothing to be ashamed about," said McQuown of her seven-player team. "They played 5-on-10 again. We made some mental errors in the beginning, but that's something you work on."

Moshannon Valley improved to 4-3 overall, 2-0 in the MVL, and 2-3 in the Juniata Valley League. The Damsels host Harmony tomorrow evening.

Glendale fell to 3-5 overall, 1-1 in the MVL and 1-4 in the JVL. The Lady Vikings are off until Jan. 5 when they host Williamsburg at 7 p.m.

Glendale duo spoils Curwensville's Senior Night, 48-25

By Jaclyn Yingling
Sports Writer

CURWENSVILLE — It was Senior Night for the Curwensville girls' basketball team, but it was two seniors from Glendale who stole the show, leading the Lady Vikings to a 48-25 victory over the Lady Tide on Friday evening at Patton Hall.

Glendale seniors Jill Miles and Amanda Corson led the way for the Lady Vikes, tallying 17 and 18 points, respectively.

"Jill and Amanda played awesome tonight," said Lady Viking head coach Renee McQuown. "They really turned it on in the second half. They were a dynamic duo tonight."

Curwensville jumped out to a 4-0 lead early in the first quarter thanks to a basket and two foul shots from Kelley Penvose.

But the lead didn't last long for the Lady Tide as Glendale went on a 10-0 run to go ahead 10-4 at the end of the first quarter.

"We just didn't come out and play tonight," said Curwensville head coach Randy Hale. "We played in slow motion all night long. We didn't play good from start to finish and we can't play league games like that."

The Lady Vikes' scoring run continued into the beginning of the second quarter when Kaytee Gates and Miles each scored a basket to put the score at 14-4.

Kelley Penvose finally got the Lady Tide back on the board with a jumpshot to make the score 14-6, but Ashley O'Shell sank one 1-of-2 from the line and Corson added a layup to give the Lady Vikes a 17-6 lead.

After taking a 19-10 lead into the locker room, Glendale allowed a basket by Kris Penvose to put the score at 19-12.

The Lady Vikes preceded to go on a 9-0 run before Courtney Bailor sank a jumpshot to get Curwensville back on the board.

Corson notched six of her 18 points in the frame, while Miles added four of her 17 points to give Glendale the 33-17 lead going into the fourth quarter.

"I think they were just a little nervous in the first half," McQuown said of her team's improved scoring in the second half. "They know every game counts, and they are going in with a whole different attitude now. Once they got past that, they just played their ball and it showed."

Kris Penvose led the Lady Tide with nine points, while Kelley Penvose added six.

"I am very frustrated," said Hale. "But it is something they have to fight through themselves. It seems like we are starting to take steps backwards and continue to make jayvee mistakes at the varsity level."

Both Corson and Miles continued to set the pace in the fourth quarter, scoring 11 of the Lady Vikes' 15 points to give Glendale the 48-25 victory.

The win sets up a showdown between the top two teams in the Moshannon Valley League on Monday night in Flinton between Glendale and Moshannon Valley, which is currently undefeated in the MVL at 5-0.

The Lady Vikes, whose only MVL loss came in Amesville by one point on Dec. 19, improved to 3-1 in the MVL and 6-11 overall.

"We have played each game one at a time," McQuown stated. "But in the back of our minds Mo Valley is there. We are big-time rivals. The girls are ready. As long as they communicate and get their passes, we will be okay. We just need to control the tempo of the game. I hope the crowd helps us. The fans are as ready as we are. I think it will be a good game."

Curwensville fell to 5-13 overall and 2-4 in the Mo Valley League and is eliminated from the MVL title chase.

The Lady Tide travel to St. Marys on Monday evening.

January 28, 2002: MoValley 45 at Glendale 44

By Jaelyn Yingling

FLINTON — At the start of the 2001-2002 season, junior guard Amy Hayward wasn't a starter and she wasn't even the first player off the bench.

But a few games ago, Moshannon Valley head coach Brian Pelka decided to shake up his lineup and put Hayward in to replace starter Ashlee Stodart.

Hayward proved to Pelka she was a go-to girl on Monday evening, knocking in two fouls shots with 3.3 seconds left on the clock to give the Damsels a 45-44 victory over Moshannon Valley League rival Glendale.

They were Hayward's only points of the night.

"Amy has ice water running through her veins," Pelka said. "She went up there and I could tell by the look on her face that she had no doubt about dropping both those balls in the bucket. She came up really clutch for us and I am really glad for her."

The foul shots capped off an amazing 13-point comeback by the Damsels, who trailed the entire game until Allison Gmerek tied the game at 33-33 with less than five seconds left in the third quarter.

Ashley O'Shell knocked in a foul shot to give the Lady Vikings a 34-33 lead going into the final frame.

The game-tying basket by Gmerek set up an 8-0 run by Mo Valley to start the fourth quarter and gave the Damsels a 41-34 lead.

"We kept fighting," Pelka said. "I am really proud of them. Earlier in the season, we might have crumbled, but we showed a lot of resolve. We are back to .500 and it feels good."

Moshannon Valley kept its resolve despite two three-pointers by O'Shell and Amanda Corson, which made the score 43-40.

Corson then knocked in a basket to make the score 43-42 and a putback basket by Jean Kaufman gave the Lady Vikes the lead with 7.2 seconds left in the game.

With just seconds left on the clock, Hayward brought the ball down the court closely guarded by Corson.

Right before the halfcourt line, the referee blew the whistle for a foul on Corson.

"It comes down to the referee's decision," said Glendale head coach Renee McQuown. "I honestly don't think it was. But they have to learn to work with those. We obviously just can't afford to get in a situation like that to begin with."

The foul was Corson's fifth of the game and forced her to watch the final seconds of the game from the bench.

After Hayward sank both shots, the Lady Vikes had one last chance to win the game, but O'Shell's shot from half-court was short and the Damsels took home a 45-44 victory.

"That comes with inexperience," McQuown said O'Shell's last shot. "Emotions were high and Ashley probably thought she had less time than she did. I don't fault her. Hopefully, we won't ever have to be that same situation again."

"Wow," said Pelka shaking his head. "I thought the Southern Huntingdon game (on Friday) was like the epitome of a thriller, but this topped it. This was classic Moshannon Valley League basketball. We knew it was going to be a dogfight, and it was, and I am just really proud of this team. It was a great victory."

The one-point victory was a bit of deja vu of the Damsels-Lady Vikes game in Amesville on Dec. 19. The Damsels held on to the 39-38 victory after the Lady Vikings came back from a 16-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

"We got a nice jumpstart on them," said McQuown of the Lady Vikes early lead. "But again, they have numbers where we don't, and we got into some foul trouble and had to play some of our inexperienced players."

Moshannon Valley improved to 9-9 overall and 6-0 in the MVL. The Damsels can clinch the MVL Championship on Valentine's Day with a win over Curwensville.

Mo Valley hosts Juniata Valley on Thursday evening.

Glendale fell to 6-12 overall and 3-2 in the MVL. The Lady Vikings travel to Williamsburg on Thursday night.

FLINTON — Glendale Lady Viking basketball coach Renee McQuown knew her squad could break out offensively.

Friday evening against Curwensville at the Donald A. Kitko Memorial Gymnasium, they did just that.

The Lady Vikes tied a season-high in points scored, defeating the Lady Golden Tide 58-33.

With the win, Glendale improved to 7-15 overall and 4-2 in the Moshannon Valley League. The Lady Vikes remained alive in the MVL with the victory. Glendale needs Mo Valley to lose its final two league games against Curwensville and Harmony to force a tie and a subsequent one-game playoff.

The Lady Vikings also scored 58 points in a 58-34 victory over Claysburg-Kimmel Jan. 21. Glendale canned a season-high nine three-pointers against Curwensville. Its previous three-point high of four also came in the Jan. 21 game against Claysburg.

"It was a fun game," said Lady Viking head coach Renee McQuown. "We've been telling the girls all year long that the outside shot is there and to take it. Sometimes they feel that they need to drive to the basket to get the two points. They're now realizing that they could've had that outside shot all season long. (Hitting the outside shot) gave them confidence."

The Lady Tide suffered its fifth straight loss and fell to 5-16 overall and 2-5 in the MVL. Curwensville hurt themselves with 30 turnovers in the game.

"We made some bad turnovers," said Lady Tide head coach Randy Hale. "We let them get a little too far ahead, and we started to press too much. Glendale really hustled. They played well and you have to give them credit. We just have to cut down on those silly turnovers."

"We've worked all season on their reaction time," said Coach McQuown in reference to the created turnovers. "I was really proud of our defense."

Glendale was led by seniors Jill Miles, Jean Kaufman and Amanda Corson. Each hit double figures for the Lady Vikes.

Miles led all scorers with 19 points, 15 of which came in the second and third quarters.

Kaufman, who has averaged about four points per game, this season, exploded for a season and career high 18. Kaufman tallied the first seven points for Glendale as the Lady Vikes led 7-4 early. Glendale held a slim 12-10 lead after one quarter.

Corson finished the game with 13 points, including eight in the third quarter.

"This was probably our best shooting night of the season," said Coach McQuown. "The girls were up for this game, and they were very confident. We wanted to dominate the game. I don't think we dominated on the boards, but we did well with everything else. It's amazing what a little confidence will do."

"Our seniors are realizing that these are their last few games," McQuown continued. "They want to do as much as they can. Those seniors, Jill, Jean and Amanda, poured it on. They were the focal point."

Glendale held an 18-15 advantage with 3:13 to go in the first half and quickly started to add to it. The Lady Vikings used an 11-0 run to close out the first half and headed into the locker room up 29-15.

Glendale pulled away even further with a 20-11 third quarter advantage.

"I'm hoping to get all our girls well," said Hale. "We have a couple girls sick right now. If we can get healthy over the weekend, hopefully we'll be ready to go for Clearfield."

Kelley Penrose led Curwensville with 13 points. She was the only Lady Tide player in double digits.

Both teams return to action with big rivalry games. Glendale hosts West Branch Monday, while Curwensville hosts Clearfield Tuesday.

Glendale cruises to easy win vs. MVL rival West Branch

By Jaelyn Yingling

FLINTON — The Glendale girls' basketball team took an early 12-5 lead over West Branch on Monday evening and went on to score a 50-32 victory in front of the hometown crowd.

"They are continuing to hustle and play well as a team," said Lady Viking head coach Renee McQuown. "Our defense again is what was the difference. They were looking for the double team, looking for the pass."

Glendale also got help from the senior duo of Jill Miles and Jean Kaufman. Miles had 20 points on the night, while Kaufman added 10.

West Branch was led by senior Beth Shimel and junior Melissa Bosak, each with eight points.

"I thought Beth Shimel played an outstanding first half," said Lady Warrior head coach Joe Matson. "She played a great game and hustled. We just didn't score the points."

"We struggle every game trying to figure out who is going to score six or eight or ten points," added Matson. "Hopefully Melissa can focus in the offseason and work with us to improve her game. I think we have a lot of bright players. The numbers aren't there for the high school, but the talent is there. If we have a good offseason, I think that will translate into success for us next year."

The Lady Vikings took a 26-17 lead into halftime, but came out sluggish in the third quarter.

Mollie White put in a rebound to put the score at 26-19 to start off the third quarter for the Lady Warriors.

The West Branch basket seemed to jumpstart the Lady Vikings, who went on a 14-4 run to put the score at 40-23.

"They were enjoying themselves," said McQuown. "I think the pressure is off. These are our last couple of games, and they are going to go out their way."

West Branch hung with the Lady Vikes in the fourth quarter, scoring nine points to Glendale's 10, but it was too late as the Lady Vikings took the 50-32 victory.

The game was a tough loss for the Lady Warrior seniors, who were playing in their last high school game of their careers.

"One thing I can say about Sophia (Amato), Emily Harris, that will benefit them. Unfortunately, we didn't win games this year. I am just frustrated that they won't have a part of our winning success. All the seniors need to be commended for the effort they put in."

Corman finished the game with three points, while Amato added two points. Harris did not play due to an injury.

West Branch finished the season 0-24 overall, 0-8 in the Moshannon Valley League and 0-9 in the Juniata Valley League.

"This was an extremely tough loss," Matson said. "I think that the team deserves a lot of credit. The story of our year hasn't been lack of heart or effort, it has been the lack of offensive fire power. We have improved in some areas, but we need to work on our offense in the offseason."

Glendale improved to 8-15 overall, 5-2 in the MVL and 2-7 in the JVL.

The Lady Vikings will now prepare for their final game of the season on Wednesday when they host Moshannon Valley League rival Harmony.

A win by either team will keep it alive for the MVL title, while the loser will be eliminated.

The last time the two teams met in Westover, Glendale took home a 52-45 victory.

"We are not taking it lightly," McQuown said of the Harmony game. "They are full of surprises. The fact that we beat them once does help our confidence."

Glendale will also recognize its senior members at 6:30 p.m.

FLINTON — The Glendale girls' basketball team sent its four seniors out in style on Wednesday night, topping Moshannon Valley League rival Harmony, 43-26.

Seniors Amanda Corson, Jean Kaufman, Jill Miles and Joni Stanton played in their last game for the Lady Vikings.

"It was a nice win," said Glendale head coach Renee McQuown. "Harmony is full of surprises. They really hustled. They didn't give up and they didn't quit. A couple of times it was hairy, but the girls were able to settle down. It was a good win."

Killion was going up for a rebound, but Brink snatched the ball and came down on top of Killion. The sophomore did return to the game late in the fourth quarter.

"I am not really sure what is going on with us mentally," said Harmony head coach Janet Hess. "We need to make some adjustments. We came out and we were flat and we were on our heels. I don't think we were really ready to play. That's unfortunate, because we have a nice rivalry with Glendale. Typically, the games are uptempo and we come out and score some points. We just weren't focused tonight."

The Lady Owls gained some momentum in the second quarter after going on a 6-1 run to start the frame to put the score at 8-7 in favor of the Lady Vikes.

Glendale took a 21-11 lead into halftime thanks to some key turnovers by the Lady Owls.

"We had lots of turnovers and too many offensive rebounds by Glendale," Hess said. "They crushed us on the boards. We didn't take enough shots. We were hesitant and passive. It's very uncharacteristic of us."

Both teams came out of the locker room fired up, but it was Harmony that took advantage of the break, scoring four points to pull the score to 21-15.

The Lady Owls inched even closer to the Lady Vikings' lead with a 7-0 run at the end of the third frame to make the score 26-22.

The fourth quarter was all Glendale as the Lady Vikes outscored the Lady Owls 17-4 to take the 43-26 victory.

The frame was also highlighted by Corson's final points of the night, which turned out to be her 799th and 800th of her career.

"I don't think it really sunk in until the very end," said McQuown of her seniors. "They did a nice job this year. They were my leaders. I am really going to have to search hard next year. They are some big shoes to fill. Hopefully, we can fill them next year."

Glendale finished the season at 9-15 overall and 6-2 in the Moshannon Valley League. The Lady Vikes are still alive in the MVL title chase, but need Moshannon Valley to lose to Curwensville tonight and Harmony on Friday evening.

Harmony fell to 13-10 overall and 4-3 in the MVL. The Lady Owls are eliminated from MVL title contention with the loss.

The Lady Owls play their season finale on Friday evening when they host Moshannon Valley at 6 p.m.

"We just have to play our best game," Hess said Friday's matchup. "The last two games we haven't played well at all. The kids are disappointed, and I am disappointed. We just got outplayed tonight. You have to give the credit to Glendale."

JVL All-Stars

Glendale's Jill Miles was named to the JVL All-Star Second Team.

Area players shine in Ninth annual Clearfield County All-Star basketball games

Girls

The South squad took control from the opening tip. Northern Cambria's Leah Chernisky scored on a layup five seconds in. That started a landslide of points as the South built a 20-3 lead six minutes into the game.

The South led 56-13 at halftime and outscored the North 41-25 in the second half to set the final.

Glendale's Jill Miles led all scorers with 23 points.

"This was the most fun basketball game I've ever played in," said Miles, who had 11 in the first half and 12 in the second. "It was good because we all came together as a team. We worked together and had a lot of fun."

Miles' teammate at Glendale, Amanda Corson added 18 points, 11 in the second half.

"I had a lot of fun," said Corson.

"I got a chance to meet some new people. It was fun to play with Jill one more times and people that we have rivalries against. We get along really well."

Northern Cambria's Nicole Jones and Chernisky also finished in double figures with 14 and 10, respectively. Moshannon Valley's Brenda Queen just missed double digits with nine while fellow Damsel Desrae Omo finished with eight.

"This game is a lot more free," said Queen. "You basically get to do whatever you want. It's like a pick-up game."

Clearfield's Sarah Butler led the North with 10 points. She was the only player in double figures. Harmony's Misti McKeen added seven.

Progressland Girls' Basketball All-Star teams announced

Glendale's Miles is MVP;

By Jaclyn Yingling
Sports Writer

It was an unforgettable year for the 2001-2002 Progressland area girls' basketball teams this season. Although many of our area teams struggled, a few did have good seasons.

Moshannon Valley finished the season at 13-12 under head coach Brian Pelka and was the only Progressland team to move on to the District play-offs. The Damsels were upset in the first round of the District 6 Class A by Saltsburg, but did finish the season as Moshannon Valley League champions for the second straight season.

The Harmony girls also secured a winning season, racking up a 13-11 record under head coach Janet Hess. The Lady Owls, who lost all five of their starters to graduation, found success with a group of underclassmen.

The Philipsburg-Osceola Lady Mounties finished the season at .500, notching a 12-12 record under head coach Lee Fisher. The Lady Mounties secured the record despite losing leading scorer Morgan Ammerman midway through the season.

Progressland also had another 1,000-point scorer this season when Glendale senior Jill Miles notched the feat in her fourth game of the season.

This is also the second year that sisters have been named to the squad. Last season's Co-Playef of the Year Katie Martin and her sister Trisha, an Honorable Mention, were named to the Progressland All-Star Team. Curwensville siblings Kelley and Kristina Penrose share the honor this season.

Player of the Year — Jill Miles, Glendale — No one can deny that this senior is the real thing. Miles led Progressland in scoring this season with an 18.0 ppg average. In fact, Miles never had a game this season where she scored under 10 points. Lady Viking head coach Renee McQuown counts herself lucky to be the one to coach the talented guard. "Jill is an example of what happens when you give 110 percent all the time," she said. "She is a very humble person. She is a team player and a true leader on and off the court. She is a great role model. Jill is just a true athlete." Miles isn't all about scoring either. The senior also has 252 total rebounds to her credit as well as 99 steals, 15 blocks and 15 assists. Miles is a 66 percent foul shooter as well, sinking 103-of-156 shots from the line. This is Miles' second straight appearance on the Progressland First Team.
