Matchock takes over at Glendale

Viking graduate has four letter winners back for 2002-03 season

FLINTON — After losing four seniors, including three starters, and a head coach, the Glendale Lady Vikings are looking to bounce back with a new head coach and a roster twice the size of last season.

Glendale alumnus John Matchock will take over the Lady Vikes this season after replacing former head coach Renee McQuown, who led the team to a 9-15 record last season.

Last season, Glendale had an explosive offense thanks to 2002 Progressland Player of the Year Jill Miles, who scored 18.0 ppg, and Amanda Corson, who averaged 9.4 ppg. Corson also led the Lady Vikings in three-pointers with 17, while Miles added 11.

Also gone to graduation are Jean Kaufman (5.4 ppg) and Joni Stanton (0.2 ppg).

With seven juniors, including four letter winners, four sophomores and six freshmen, Glendale has doubled its roster from eight players last season to 17 this season.

But Matchock knows he has his work cut out for him in his first year, especially with such a young group of girls.

"We are real young this season," he said. "We have no seniors and no size, but I think it's going to be alright. We only have four girls that have varsity experience, so we are going to really count on them. I am trying to pair them up with the freshmen, and I am relying on them to help them out."

Two of those letter winners, Ashley O'Shell and Kaytee Gates, saw plenty of playing time as starters last season. O'Shell averaged 6.6 points per game, while Gates notched 2.8 ppg.

Crystal Killian and Adrienne McQuown also saw time last season and will be expected to contribute, especially McQuown, who is one of the tallest players on the team. McQuown stands 5-foot-10, while junior Autumn McClellan is also 5-10.

who played a couple of years ago. I think once she gets into a rhythm she will be fine."

The Lady Vikings aren't the only team that is young this season, something that seems to be common with small schools in the area.

"We are looking forward to playing schools like West Branch and Curwensville that are young like us," said Matchock. "I think we will match up well with smaller schools like us too."

As for the rest of the season, Matchock and the Lady Vikes will play it by ear. They have just one main goal in mind.

"Our goal is to get to .500 this season," Matchock said. "We are

With most of the juniors seeing key playing time this season, Matchock will also look to a freshman to fill out his roster.

"I think we are going to just take it game by game," Matchock said. "We have a good freshman named Sara McGarvey, who is going to see a lot of varsity playing time. We also have Autumn McClellan, really not worried about this season. Next season we have all of our kids back. This season we just want to learn from our mistakes and work on the basics."

Glendale starts off the season on Nov. 29 when it travels to the Cambria Heights Tournament.

Lady Vikes notch their first win of the season

By Jaclyn Yingling
Sports Writer

FLINTON — The Glendale girls' basketball team took advantage of 41 West Branch turnovers to snag its first victory of the season on Friday night.

The Lady Vikings traded the lead back and forth with the Lady Warriors for four quarters and walked away with a 43-39 victory at home.

"I thought we played hard," said Lady Viking head coach John Matchock. "We got down, but we didn't give up. Usually, we play games and we get down. But tonight the girls didn't give up. We are very proud of our girls."

The Lady Warriors scored the first basket of the game on a jump shot by Valerie Amick, but Glendale didn't waste any time getting on the board after that.

The Lady Vikes went on an 8-0 run to take an 8-2 lead in the first quarter. West Branch went 3-of-4 from the line after two Glendale fouls to pull within three at 8-5 at the end of the first frame.

The Lady Warriors started off the second quarter well with a basket from Melissa Bosak and two foul shots from Angie Fenush.

But the Lady Vikes rallied again, taking advantage of several WB turnovers to go on another run — this time racking up nine points to retake a 17-9 lead.

"We missed foul shots and layups at crucial times in the game," said West Branch head coach Joe Matson. "We had a lot of blown opportunities and mental mistakes. We were out of position, and we didn't execute the things that we needed to. That turned into opportunities for Glendale, and it made the most of it."

West Branch made a late run before halftime, pulling within two points at 18-16 going into the locker room.

Glendale opened up the second half with another 6-0 run to start the third quarter, giving them a 24-16 lead.

The Lady Vikes continued to take advantage of miscues by the West Branch offense to increase their lead in the third frame.

"Every game we have had over 30 turnovers," Matchock said. "We are always preaching that we have to get below 20. That's the case for once, so we are very happy."

But Glendale's big lead didn't last long as the Lady Warriors scored the next 10 points to take a 28-24 lead. Six of those points came from Emily Cherry, who finished the game with eight points.

"I think the girls hustled really well," Matson said. "It was just too many unnecessary mistakes and too many mental breakdowns. You can't win basketball games if you don't where you are supposed to be on the court. At this point, those are things that we can work on."

"It was a tough game," continued Matson. "I hope the girls keep their chins up, because there are things we can correct. It wasn't for a lack of hustle, it was just too many mistakes."

The Lady Warriors' small lead didn't last long. Fenush, West Branch's leading scorer this season, went down with 4:03 left to play in the third quarter after hitting the floor hard after a layup attempt.

Fenush was helped off the court by the Glendale trainer, but did return to the game, before being injured again. The sophomore guard finished out the remainder of the game after returning the second time, but was in obvious pain.

"She is a gamer," Matson said. "She never wants to willingly come out. I think the extent of her injury at this point is unknown. We just aren't sure how bad."

"It's going to take a total team effort to get back on track," he continued. "At this point in the season, she has probably carried more of the load than we wanted her to. So if she is going to be out for any period of time, I need other key people to step up. Only then can we expect to do well and win basketball games."

— Glendale notches its first victory

The fourth quarter started with a 31-28 Glendale lead after an Ashley O'Shell three-pointer right before the buzzer to end the third frame.

West Branch scored the first five points of the fourth on two foul shots by Janelle Orwick and a basket by Fenush. Fenush was unable to shoot the resulting foul shot, so Amick went to the line for her and gave the Lady Warriors a 33-31 lead.

The two teams continued to trade the lead back and forth until the Lady Vikes took the lead with 1:34 remaining in the game on two Crystal Killion foul shots.

Foul shots were important to the Lady Vikes down the stretch. Glendale hit 10-of-19 from the line in the fourth quarter.

"They were calm," said Matchock. "We told them to take their shots and be patient. They really hung in there."

Autumn McClellan hit one of her allotted foul shots with less than 40 seconds remaining in the game. O'Shell sealed the deal for the Lady Vikes after going 1-of-2 from the line, giving them a 42-38 victory.

"We missed a lot of shots and a lot of layups at the beginning," said Matchock. "But they hung in there and everyone chipped in with two points."

O'Shell led Glendale with nine points. Kaytee Gates added eight points.

Amick was the Lady Warriors' leading scorer with nine points. Fenush and Cherry each added eight points in the loss.

The Lady Vikes improved to 1-10 overall, 1-2 in the Moshannon Valley League and 1-7 in the Juniata Valley League.

The Lady Warriors fell to 3-19 overall, 1-2 in the MVL and 1-8 in the JVL.

Both teams return to action on Tuesday. West Branch hosts Claysburg-Kimmuel, while Glendale travels to Southern Huntingdon.

Glendale also won the junior varsity game, 27-18. Nicole Heverly led the Lady Vikes with 7. Emily Cherry had nine points for West Branch.

Curwensville in big MVL battle

FLINTON — Most coaches always say that one of the most important keys to basketball is hitting foul shots.

That theory wasn't any truer than on Monday night when the Glendale Lady Vikings hosted the Curwensville Lady Tide in an important Moshannon Valley League matchup.

Glendale went 21-of-30 from the line, while the Lady Tide went 26-of-35.

Despite a late comeback by Curwensville, the Lady Vikings held out to take a 54-52 win in overtime to capture their second win of the season.

"Curwensville is a good foul shooting team," said Glendale head coach John Matchock. "That really kept them in the game. We told the girls not to foul because they were going to hit their foul shots. The girls did a good job for the most part. It wasn't our best game of the year, but we will take the win."

After taking a 30-26 lead in the fourth quarter on a basket by Ashley O'Shell, the Lady Vikings began to struggle, letting Kelley Penvose hit a basket and 4-of-4 from the line for a 32-30 Lady Tide lead. Penvose hit an incredible 16-of-16 from the line on the night, finishing with 28 points for the evening.

"Sometimes Kelley can get scary and run a lot of streaks, both from the field and the line," Curwensville head coach Alan Fairman said. "She certainly had a nice game tonight. It's a shame we didn't have her at the end."

Kaytee Gates tied the game at 32-32 and then hit 1-of-2 from the charity stripe to give Glendale back the lead at 33-32.

Curwensville retook the lead, 37-34, midway through the fourth, but an 8-2 run by O'Shell and Sara McGarvey gave Glendale a 42-39 lead with 1:05 left in regulation.

The Lady Tide turned the ball over and were forced to foul Autumn McClellan with 37.5 seconds left on the clock. McClellan missed the one-and-one shot, keeping the score at 42-39.

Penvose was fouled going down the court and hit both her shots, moving the Lady Tide within one at 42-41 with 33.7 left. But the Lady Tide were forced to foul, and Penvose fouled Kristin Laing with 28.9 left.

Laing hit both shots and moved the Lady Vikings ahead by three points at 44-41.

A discrepancy in the two scorers' books had Penvose fouling out, even though the Curwensville bench disputed the call.

With just 19.0 seconds left in the game, Stephanie Wagner hit a desperation three-pointer that went in to tie the game at 44-44.

Glendale got one final chance at the ball, but turned it over. Wagner tried to hit a jumper with 8.2 seconds left, but it bounced off the rim as the buzzer sounded sending the game into overtime.

"That was a big three," said Fairman. "That was the only way we were going to get back into that game. We only had a few seconds left. I think that type of experience for a young team can really help a team make a lot of positive improvement. To get in close games like this is what they need."

O'Shell hit two shots to open up the overtime and give the Lady Vikings the early lead. But Betsy Rebar tied it up again with a second-chance shot under the basket.

After O'Shell went to the line again and hit both of her allotted shots, Glendale fouled Heidi Cleaver and sent her to the line.

But Cleaver hit just 1-of-2 from the line, keeping the Glendale lead at 48-47.

McGarvey hit a key basket for the Lady Vikings to give them a more manageable 50-47 lead. Gates added a foul shot to move the lead to four points at 51-47.

O'Shell hit a jumper to extend the lead to six points and bump up her tally on the night to 28 points — a season high.

With 16.7 seconds left in the final frame, Wagner hit another big three to move the Lady Tide closer at 53-50. Both Cleaver and Courtney Bailor had a foul shot each, making the score 53-52.

"If you are going to win close games late you have to hit your foul shots — and they hit theirs," Fairman said. "And, of course, the other major factor was Kelley fouling out just before the end of regulation. Going into overtime without our top scorer really had an impact. Although, I thought our girls responded well."

Curwensville forced a Glendale turnover, but traveled with just 6.8 seconds left. Betsy Rebar fouled Crystal Killion with 0.2 seconds left on the clock and Killion hit one of two shots, setting the final at 54-52.

"I thought the girls were pretty composed," said Matchock of the overtime quarter. "Some of the girls were a little nervous and dropped the ball. But they are not used to this type of deal. We are proud of them, but there are still some things they need to work on."

With the victory, the Lady Vikings improved to 2-12 overall and 2-2 in the Moshannon Valley League. Glendale travels to Claysburg-Kimmel on Wednesday.

Curwensville fell to 3-12 overall and 0-4 in the Moshannon Valley League. The Lady Tide travel to Harmony on Wednesday evening.

The Lady Tide won the junior varsity game, 30-27. Amy Kalgren led Curwensville with 10 points, while Nicole Heverly had nine points for the Lady Vikings.

Lady Warriors edge Lady Vikes in MVL battle

By Jaelyn Yingling
Sports Writer

ALLPORT — West Branch senior Melissa Bosak had just six points in the Lady Warriors' game against Glendale on Tuesday evening, but it was her play in the first half that West Branch head coach Joe Matson credits in the Lady Warriors' 38-30 victory.

"Melissa had an outstanding game in the first half," said Matson. "She really played well offensively, and it ignited us as a team and gave us the momentum we needed."

The victory was the first for the Lady Warriors since a 47-44 victory over Harmony on Jan. 17.

"I am happy with the victory," Matson said. "It's been a long time since we have won a game, and it's important to end the season on a high note."

Angie Fenush led all scorers with 15 points, while Janelle Orwick chipped in 11 points for West Branch.

Orwick scored the first five points for the Lady Warriors, which jumped out to a 5-2 lead over the Lady Vikes.

Bosak extended the lead to 7-2 before Sara McGarvey hit one of her two allotted shots to make the score 7-3. Both Fenush and Orwick added baskets to make the score 11-3. Nicole Heverly hit a shot right before the quarter ended to make the score 11-5 at the end of the frame.

Glendale went 1-of-3 from the line in the first, but it was only a sign of things to come. The Lady Vikes finished the night 8-of-27 from the charity stripe.

"We told them before this game that foul shots was how we beat them last time," said Glendale head coach John Matchock. "We knew this game was going to come down to the wire. That's what killed us, our foul shots. West Branch played good, but we would have had the game had we made our foul shots."

The Lady Warriors extended their lead to 22-11 at the end of the second quarter thanks to two baskets from Bosak and a basket and foul shot from Fenush. Valerie Amick also had a basket, and Alicia Howe went 2-of-2 from the line.

Glendale managed just six points in the quarter, with four of those points coming off foul shots.

The Lady Vikings fired much better in the second half, scoring the first eight points of the third quarter to cut the lead to 22-19.

Two of those baskets came from Ashley O'Shell, who forced two Lady Warrior turnovers and converted them into points.

Glendale went on to outscore the Lady Warriors, 11-6, in the frame and cut the West Branch lead to 27-22.

The Lady Vikes suffered a blow, however, when McGarvey went down with one second left in the third quarter after trying for a rebound. McGarvey had an apparent neck injury after landing hard on the floor and left the game. She finished with eight points and did not return.

"The bottom line tonight was that we had key people step up in the game," Matson said. "In the third quarter, I thought it could have gone either way because of turnovers. We forced them to turn the ball over in the first half, and in the second half they forced us to turn it over quite a bit. I think that tonight we saw some positive things. We played a little flat in the second half, but we did what we needed to do to get the win. And I am satisfied with that."

Glendale looked to continue its momentum in the fourth, scoring the first four points of the frame. Heverly hit a basket to open the quarter, and Kaytee Gates added another to put the score at 27-26. Gates had a chance to tie the game, but missed the foul shot.

The Lady Warriors had some trouble of their own to start the quarter after Bosak fouled out with 7:14 left in the game.

With their lead shrinking, the Lady Warriors stepped up their defense and their offense, going on a 9-1 run.

"West Branch played good defense," Matchock said. "But (on) a lot of our turnovers there was no defense there — it was just throwing the ball away. I think we came into the game a little relaxed since we beat them last time. West Branch played a good game and beat us."

Also hurting the Lady Vikings was the fact that three of their starters — O'Shell, Gates and Kristin Laing — all fouled out in the fourth quarter.

West Branch's Olivia Beveridge also fouled out in the fourth.

"It's unfortunate that we had some foul trouble, but so did they," said Matson. "At the end of the game it came down to who could make free throws and key opportunities and who could make the most of those. A win is a win, so we will take it. I am very proud of the way the girls hung in this year. I know there is a lot of potential in this unit."

The Lady Vikes struggled to contain Fenush in the fourth, sending her to the line seven times after the sophomore guard tried to take the ball to the hoop.

Despite the fact that Fenush went just 5-of-13 in the final frame, her points from those shots were key to the Lady Warriors' victory.

"We couldn't stop her," said Matchock of Fenush. "With all those back door cuts — we tried to press her and deny her the ball and they kept getting the ball to her. She kept taking the ball right down the court. She is a good player. We just didn't have an answer for her."

We have improved since our first game at Northern Cambria," Matchock continued. "We are taking little steps. Obviously, we still have a lot to work on."

The Lady Vikings fell to 2-21 overall and 2-5 in the Moshannon Valley League. They finished at 0-9 in the second cycle of the Juniata Valley League. Glendale travels to Curwensville on Thursday evening.

West Branch finished the season at 4-20 overall, 3-5 in the MVL and 1-8 in the second cycle of the JVL.

Glendale won the junior varsity game, 36-18, behind 10 points from Heverly. Beveridge had six points for the Lady Warriors.

2002-2003 Progressland Girls' Basketball All-Star Team

First Team—Ashley O'Shell, Glendale: O'Shell took over as the leading scorer for the Lady Vikings after last year's player of the year Jill Miles graduated. The junior guard averaged 12.0 points per game, racking up 118 field goals and 288 total points. O'Shell notched 75 steals and 74 rebounds in her second year as a starter.

Moshannon Valley head coach Tom Tomasko calls O'Shell a "very unselfish player with quickness and good ball handling skills" for such a younger player. "She is a good perimeter shooter," Tomasko said. "She likes to drive to the basket. We felt like we had to contain her and defensively keyed on her when we played her. She is definitely the type of player you want running your offense."

O'Shell had a season-high 28 points against Curwensville this season and scored 20-plus points in four games. The petite junior also scored in double digits 11 times this season.
