FLINTON – It wasn't the greatest start – but it was a start nonetheless.

Glendale High School played its first-ever girls' volleyball match Thursday and fell to Northern Cambria by scores of 15-2 and 15-8 at Glendale High School.

Despite the 0-1 start, first-year head coach Bryce Baker looked at the positives.

"The girls were nervous, obviously," he said. "But they played over and above what we expected."

Kristin Martin led the Lady Vikings with four service points – including three aces. Pam Spaid had four service points.

"We have to improve our serving and we'll be coming around pretty quickly," Baker said.

In the junior varsity match, Northern Cambria topped Glendale by scores of 15-6 and 15-2.

Glendale visits Curwensville Monday.
