Williamsburg won the junior varsity game, 25-8 and 27-25.

September 15, 2011: Glendale 2 at MoValley 3

AMESVILLE — The Moshannon Valley volleyball team staged a dramatic comeback over rival Glendale on Thursday night for its first win of the season.

The Damsels (1-2) trailed the Lady Vikings, two games to one, before handling the guests 25-13 and edging their rivals 16-14 in the final game.

Glendale won the first and third sets 25-16 and 25-16, while Mo Valley prevailed in the second, 25-22.

"We definitely communicated better than in previous games," said Mo Valley head coach Roxy Miller. "We're starting to grow as a team, and the girls are starting to trust each other."

"I'm most pleased about how well we played. We played much better tonight than we have in our other two games."

Tayia Swoope led the Damsels at the net with eight kills and three blocks, while Breanne Supenia added five kills and a block.

Mo Valley's play at the net was the difference, according to Glendale head coach Kayla Miles.

"One of the things we need to work on is going for the block," she said. "There were a couple of times we got burned when the other team went for hits."

"The girls went up for the block, but it still came down on our side. We just didn't cover."

The Damsels' serving also doomed the Lady Vikings, as Supenia and Swoope had six-point runs in the contest with Katie Davis adding one of five.

"The girls are usually really good servers," said Miller of her team, "but we were great tonight. We had a really great student section, and the girls really wanted to win this game."

Davis scored the final point of the night with a good serve and had the final three points for Mo Valley, which travels to DuBois Central Catholic on Monday.

Despite going up 2-1, Glendale came out flat in the fourth game and couldn't totally recover.

"That game surprised me the most," said Miles. "It was the fourth game and we could have won the match that game. It was one of those instances where we have a couple plays in a row and we weren't covering."

"We pumped each other up, but like in the past it was like a domino effect — once one player hangs their head, everyone does. I think that has a lot to do with winning every other game and then losing the last one."

Chelsea Domanick led Mo Valley with 11 digs and Kacie Gallo added nine, while Supenia and Ruthie Hutton each had six aces.

Davis had four kills and five digs to her credit, and Alanna Figula chipped in with three and seven, respectively.

Individual statistics for Glendale were unavailable.

The Lady Vikings return to action Tuesday when they travel to Bellwood-Antis.

Glendale won the jayvee game 17-25, 25-16 and 17-15.
