Two Glendale wrestlers, Todd Cossick and Tim McCoy, bowed out of action with losses in the championship semis and the consolation semifinals.

Cossick, as sophomore, wrestling at 167, was pinned by last year's PIAA Class AA State Tournament runner-up Chad Menzie, wrestling for Ligonier Valley this season after a start at Greensburg Central Catholic in District 7, in 2:43 in the semis and in the consolation he was dumped 8-1 by Portage's Keith Sherbine.

McCoy, meanwhile, lost his 112-pound championship semifinal bout with Kevin Harkless of Huntingdon 13-6 after being cradled for two points early in the match and then bowed out of the tourney with an 8-3 setback to Richland's Woody Lovrich.

Cossick, as sophomore, wound up with an 18-4 record while McCoy, a junior, finished the season at 15-6.

"The boys were a little disappointed about not going as far as they wished," claimed Glendale coach Jim Barto. "But they gave it their best shot and they wrestled hard. They'll be back next year."
