December 28-29, 1982: North Penn Tourney

Glendale In Contention At North Penn

BLOSSBURG — After the first night of action at the North Penn Holiday Wrestling Tournament, Glendale High School is second in the team standings with 14 points behind Mansfield with 16, as five Vikings advanced to today's semifinal round.

In the last three weight classes, the Vikings' represetatives each registered falls in the quarterfinals to move on.

Nat Travney (167) and Jim Orichosky (hwt) both decked their opponents in the first period, while 185-pounder Jim Stine waited until the second frame to show his foe the lights.

Mike Ross notched the most dramatic win of the first day's bouts, but injured his shoulder in the process. After a 14-14 tie in regulation, Ross found himself trailing Bill Dougherty of Bishop Neumann 6-3 late in the third overtime period. The Viking junior took Dougherty down to his back with just five seconds left for four points and a 7-6 win.

Freshman Tom Ross is the other Glendale grappler to reach the semis, having decisioned John Tripp of Bishop Neumann 7-2.

For Vikings — Nick Kephart (112), Craig Hamilton (126), Jim Hamilton (132) and Jim Sinclair (155) — posted wins in the preliminary round, but lost in quarterfinal action.

For Kephart, the prelim victory was his first of the season, in fact, the first of his varsity career, and came via fall over Greg Kuntz of Liberty.

Glendale Second At North Penn

BLOSSBURG — Glendale High School had two individual champions and placed second with 94½ team points last night at the 10-team North Penn Christmas Tournament.

The Vikings were a distant second behind team champion Canton, which had 123 points. Glendale was followed in team scoring by Mansfield 79½, Towanda 57½, Liberty 50, Bucktail 41, Cowanesque Valley 32½, Bishop Neumann 31, Wellsboro 20 and Williamson 16½.

Individual champions for the Vikes were topseeded Jim Stine at 185, and Jim Hamilton at 132.

Stine, 10-1 and a two-time champ, pinned Towanda's Brian Wickwire in the championship semifinals and then decisioned Canton's Mike McNaul 8-6 in the finals. Stine, a senior, bested McNaul in last year's semifinals 4-4, 5-5 and eighth criterion (first near fall).

"Jim was a little tight in the beginning," Glendale coach Blair Packer said. "But as the match wore on, he settled down and looked very good. He was a little concrened about McNaul because of what happened last year."

Hamilton, 6-3-1 before yesterday's action, decisioned Mansfield's Tim Smith 6-2 in the semis, then pinned Bryan Heatley of Liberty in 5:14 of the championship bout. In the quarterfinals, the junior had decked Tom Howe of Williamson in 5:49.

"Jim's getting stronger," Packer said. "He's been coming along very well. He was very sound during the tournament. He's getting stronger. And he's a very coachable kid."

Three other Glendale wrestlers reached the finals but lost in their bids for laurels. Reaching the finals were sophomore Craig Hamilton (126), who brought a 1-1 slate into the tourney, junior Mike Ross (138) and freshman Tom Ross (145).

Senior Nat Traveny, who lost a 10-6 decision to Joe Arbie of Townada in the semis, blanked Dale Ross of Liberty 5-0 in the consolation finals. Freshmen heavyweight Jim Orichosky also finished third by decking Tim Farley of Towanda in the consolation finals to come out of the tourney with a 10-1 mark on the year. Orichosky suffered his first setback of the season in the championship semis when he dropped a 3-2 decision to Canton's Brett Alexander.

"I'm very happy with the way the kids wrestled," Packer said. "And that's from start to finish. It makes you feel good when you know all of the kids gave a hundred percent effort."

Three Vikes Advance in West

JOHNSTOWN — Glendale High School came out Saturday's District 6 Class AA West Section Tournament at Westmont Hilltop High School with three wrestlers still on the PIAA Tournament trail.

The host Hilltoppers head the West contingent to the 6-AA tourney Friday and Saturday at Tyrone with 56 points and nine survivors. Ligonier Valley is a not-so-close second with 46½ points and seven survivors.

Moving on for the Vikings are senior 185-pounder Jim Stine, who decked Pat Sally of Richland in the first round and Rock Sunday of Marion Center in the second round; freshmen 138-pounder Tom Ross, an 8-2 winner over Portage's Ron Davis, and freshman heavyweight Jim Orichosky, who registered the quickest fall of the tourney when he flattened Saltsburg's Chuck Griffin in 20 seconds.

All of the first and second seeds made their way through the sectional, but third seeds Don Stamanak (112) of Westmont Hilltop, Randy Burkhart (119) of Forest Hills, Jim Duke (145) of Saltsburg and Chris Sweet (Hwt) of Richland were ousted, as was fourth-seeded Darrin Reed (132) of Saltsburg.

The District 6 Tournament gets under way Friday at 7 p.m. with the quarterfinal round. On Saturday, the championship semifinals and consolation semis start at 11:30 a.m., with the consy finals slated for 7 p.m. and the championship finals at 8 o'clock.
