

Cast of Vets Makes Viking Outlook Bright

FLINTON — Blair Packer goes into his fifth year at the helm of the Glendale High School wrestling team with seven lettermen returning from a young 8-9 squad, and six of the returnees each won 10 or more bouts last season.

Gone from last year's team are a pair of wrestlers who notched winning records — 185-

...Hopes are high pounder Jim Stine, with a 26-3-0 record in 1982-83 and 167-pounder Nat Traveny (15-6-1) — plus Jim Sinclair, who was 10-13-0 at 155.

The returnees bring with them a 88-64-3 combined record from last season, with sophomore heavyweight Jim Orichosky leading the way with a 24-3 mark. Orichosky racked up 16 falls as a freshman and advanced through the District 6 Class AA East Sectional before having his season ended in the district meet by Westmont Hilltop's Bob Fleck.

"Jim Orichosky should improve on that this year," Packer predicted. "He's got a good head and good speed. He and some of the other veterans are going to be exciting to watch this year."

Tom Ross, wrestling at 138-145, picked up 14 wins against 12 losses and a draw in his freshman year. Ross, like his heavyweight classmate, made it through sectionals only to be eliminated in districts.

Junior Craig Hamilton was 12-6 at 126-132, junior Jim Hamilton 12-8-1 at 132-138, junior Steve Potutschnig 11-10 at 105-119, senior Mike Ross 10-15 at 132-145 and senior Jerry Laing 5-10 at 105-112.

Other Vikings back with at least some varsity experience are Ben Wilkinson (certified at 132) and Chris Henry (155).

According to Packer, the Vikings will be strongest in the middle third of the lineup, with five of the letterman back at those weights.

The problematic weights for Glendale will be 98, 105, 119 and 185, weights which Packer expects to be manned by freshmen and sophomores.

Last season, the Vikings went through the season without contesting a bout at 98, and those forfeits in dual meets kept them from a winning season, as they lost to Forest Hills by two points and to Central by five.

If Glendale is to keep from giving up an automatic six points every dual meet, one of the freshmen certified at 98 will have to be able to make that weight.

"The kids are optimistic about the season," Packer remarked. "We've got a strong nucleus to build around this year, and the good attitude they display could help make the season successful."

"Solid leadership from the veterans and dedication from the rest of the squad is what we're looking for. If we get that and stay healthy, we'll have a fine season."

Glendale opens its 1983-84 campaign Dec. 16-17 in the Tri-County Tournament, booked this year at Bellwood-Antis, with Packer listing the hosts, Northern Bedford and Portage as the teams to beat. The Vikings' first dual meet will be Dec. 20 when they host Claysburg-Kimmel.

Assisting Packer will be Frank Pehinec, Gary Walstrom, Todd Cossick and Gig Callahan.
