Vikings Bow To Bulldogs

FLINTON — Glendale High School's wrestling team opened the season last night as they fell to Claysburg-Kimmel 35-26.

The Vikings had their work cut out for them in the match as Claysburg-Kimmel is the Tri-County Tournament Champion and is looking for one of their best seasons.

"It was a good effort on everyone's part," Glendale Head Coach Blair Packer said, "even those that lost wrestled well."

Glendale got wins from Jim Shaw at 105 pounds, Mark McMillen at 126, Bryan Gondek at 167 (forfeit), Karl Petrof at 185 and Jason North at heavyweight (forfeit).

The Viking Mentor noted that his team lacks experience and will have to do a lot of work to counter that lack of experience.

Glendale won the Junior High match against Claysburg-Kimmel 66-30.

Glendale will next take to the mats on Monday, Dec. 21 against Tussey Mountain.

Early Bout Wins Lift Titans Over Vikes

SAXTON — The Tussey Mountain Titans gained early points to take a 41-22 win over the Glendale Vikings last night in scholastic wrestling action last night.

A pin at 98 pounds, a major decision at 105, a forfeit at 112 and a forfeit at 119 gave the Titans a comfortable lead.

Mark McMillen came back for the Vikings at 126 pounds with a fall over Adam Baker as the final period wound down.

Another Tussey Mountain Pin and major decision upped the tally for the Titans to put the match out of reach.

At 155, Glendale began their try at a comeback as Dave Smith pinned TM's Kevin Miller in the second period. Brian Gondek followed at 167 with a major decision as Mike Brode fell 11-2.

Karl Petrof, 185-pounder for the Vikings held on and pinned the Titans' Mike Crooks at 5:21.

Tussey took the heavyweight with a fall to sew up the match.

The Vikings, 0-2 in dual action, will try to regroup for a double dual meet Tuesday, Dec. 29 as they host Portage, Marion Center and Saltsburg.

Glendale Wrestlers Fall In Heartbreaker

PATTON — The Glendale High School wrestling squad fell to an opportunistic Cambria Heights squad 31-25 in the Highlanders gymnasium last night.

The match was tightly knotted at 25 each going into the final bout where Darren Thomas pinned Glendale's Jason North in 1:19.

Glendale had the upper hand first in the meeting as Jamie Jones had a 10-4 decision over Scott Cronauer and, at 105, Jim Shaw rolled up a 17-1 technical fall over Albert Gailey at the 4:48 mark.

Trailing 9-0, the Highlanders lighted their side of the scoreboard as Craig Link pinned Glendale's Chris Evanskey at 112 pounds and Brian Murphy major decisioned Joe Storm 9-0. Heights led 10-9.

The Vikings took their turn with the lead as Mark McMillen major decisioned Kevin Lato 15-6 to place Glendale on the positive side of a 13-10 battle.

The Highlanders countered twice as Jason Cicero decisioned Aaron Lewis at 132 and Dan Little major decisioned Bill Lloyd of the Vikes to put Glendale down 17-10.

In the 145 bout, Joe Gates of Glendale pinned his man in the third period at the 5:11 mark, but CH's lineup hung tough.

The Highlanders came back with a major decision win at 155 and a superior win at 167 to boost their score to 25-19.

At 185 pounds, Karl Petrof of Glendale knotted the match 25-25 with a quick fall over Larry McKerman at the 1:55 point, leading up to the heavyweight bout.

The Vikings are 2-6 on the year and will host Curwensville Tuesday in the next dual action.

Portage Pushes Back Glendale 34-24

FLINTON — The Glendale Vikings wrestling lineup suffered some big setbacks on their way to a 34-24 loss to Portage.

The Mustangs handed the Vikings a pin and three technical falls to gain the edge necessary for the win.

Glendale's Jamie Jones opened the match to tally his own technical fall, scoring an 18-1 decision over Darryl Chambers at the 3:50 mark.

Glendale jumped to a

12-0 lead as Jim Shaw received a forfeit, but Portage won a decision at 112 pounds and had a fall in the 119 bout.

The Vikings held to their lead and added three as Mark McMillen stayed tough to outpoint Damian Branas 6-4, giving the hosts a 15-9 edge.

The Mustang wrestlers picked up two consecutive falls, at 132 and 138, to put them ahead for good. They continued to pick up points as Zeke Fox decided Glendale's

Joe Gates 6-4 to put Portage on top 24-15.

The Vikings surrendered a major decision at 155 and a third TF in the 167 weight.

Glendale's Karl Petrof helped the Vikings recover a little with a 1-0 blanking of John Babish and Jason North had a fall over heavyweight foe Don Hornbake.

The Vikings drop to 4-10 and will go right back to the mats Friday as they host West Branch.
