February 15, 1990: Southern Huntingdon 18 at Glendale 46

Southern Huntingdon, which has been flirting with the .500 level over the past couple weeks, fell below it last night with a 46-18 loss at Glendale. It was the second match in as many days for the Rockets.

Southern is now 6-7 for the season and still leads the brief series with the Vikings by a 2-1 margin. The Rockets will close the deal meet part of their season Tuesday when they play host to Northern Bedford.

The victory lifts the Vikings to 9-6 for the winter.

The Rockets won only four of 13 bouts in the match, one of those a forfeit. Southern was outscored 112-26 in bout points.

"We're an up and down team right now," said Rocket coach Frank Baker. "We win one, then we lose one. That's a pattern I don't like. Tonight, Glendale adjusted its lineup and we didn't match up very well with them."

The match opened with the Vikings' Chris Jones (103) capitalizing on a takedown, reversal, penalty point and 12 nearfall points to win a 17-0 technical fall over Mark Irvin (7-11) in 6:00.

The Rockets came back for their only lead of the night when John Kling (18-7) pinned Jamie Jones (112) in 2:57. Kling led 5-1 when he recorded his fifth fall of the season.

The Vikings then won four straight to take a 25-6 advantage. At 119, Harold Gustafson had a takedown, escape and six nearfall points in a 9-0 major win over Dennis Johnston (9-14). Frank Weatherwalk (125) then won a 16-2 major over Calvin Plank (2-15).

Moving to 130, Jim Shaw dropped to pin Jason Baker (5-12-1) in 2:42 after taking a 4-0 lead, then Mark McMillen dropped to 135 and decked John Tharp (1-13) in 3:53. McMillen led 12-0 at the time.

Southern won the next three to close the gap to 25-18, the closest it would be the remainder of the night.

At 140, Craig Mitchell (7-13) received a forfeit. Joe Zinobile (16-9) then overcame an opening takedown by Ron McGarvey (145) to win an 8-2 verdict. Zinobile had a reversal and three-point nearfall in the second period, then added another three-pointer in the third.

Jonathan Shields (152) raised his record to 18-4 for the season with a 7-2 win over John Fontanella. Shields got the opening takedown, but Fontanella reversed. Shields reversed back to lead 4-2 after the opening period. In the second, he added an escape and takedown, then rode out the final stanza.

Glendale locked up the victory by winning the final four bouts of the match.

At 160, Loren Petrof dominated en route to a 12-0 major victory over Mike Scholl (3-16). Mike Franks (171) followed that with a pin in 3:26 over Andy Baker (13-9). Franks led 8-4 at the time of the fall.

Jason North (189) built a big 14-0 lead before decking Chad Cisney (3-17) and heavyweight John Keith quickly disposed of Troy Christoff (4-12). Keith won a 16-0 technical fall in 2:50.

In the junior varsity prelim, the Rockets fell to 4-6 for the season with a 6-0 loss.
