Glendale leads team title chase at Tri-County Tournament

ALEXANDRIA – Glendale advanced 10 wrestlers to today's semifinals and leads the team race after the opening night of the Tri-County League Tournament at Juniata Valley High School.

The Vikings' John Ross (112), Josh Irvine (130), Bill Dubler (160) and Phil Semal (Hwt) pinned their way to the semis, while Josh Hewitt (119), Chad Bickford (140), Justin Anderson (152) and Todd Spencer (189) scored major decisions to advance.

Mike Lieb (145) decisioned Southern Huntingdon's Brooks Clymons 10-3 to move on and Jim Bob Fleming (171) received a bye.

Moshannon Valley ended the first evening in a tie for sixth place with Southern Huntingdon and advanced four to the semis.

The Black Knights' Matt Lobb (140), Josh Berndt (145) and Jeremi Yarger (152) pinned their way to the conseys. Lee Krause (130) edged Central's Brad Bitter 6-4 to move on.

Two semifinal matches will have two area wrestlers battling as Lobb faces Bickford and Yarger meets Anderson.

Today's schedule has the semifinals, consolation quarterfinals and consey semifinals beginning at noon, the consey finals at 5:30 and the championship finals at 7:30.

160 – Chad Teasdale, Jefferson-Morgan, dec. Bill Dubler, Glendale, 4-2.

Dubler, who went 33-4 this year, dropped a 4-2 decision to Jefferson Morgan's Chad Teasdale in the fifth-place finals. Teasdale (32-6) escaped and took Dubler down in the second period to go up 3-0. In the third, Dubler scored a reversal with 46 seconds left and released Teasdale, but was unable to take him down.

"I can't be mad," said Dubler, who will walk on at Penn State. "I know on any given day I probably would have placed higher. I'm pretty satisfied with sixth."

"Bill did an outstanding job and I'm very proud of his performance," Glendale coach Blair Packer said. "He's been a leader and a champion all year for us."
