FLINTON – For Glendale head wrestling coach Blair Packer, a mixture of talented returning lettermen and a solid group of incoming underclassmen could make his 19th year a successful one.

"We have a nice group of kids coming back," said Packer, who has a career record of 168-126-3. "With a little bit of hard work and dedication, this group of seniors can show the incoming underclassmen that this is going to be a good season and a good team if they all hold together."

The Vikings return eight letter winners from last year's team that went 9-5 in dual matches and had second place finishes in the East-West Tournament, the Tyrone-Pepsi Tournament and the Tri-County Tournament.

They will also attempt to better their ninth place finish at last year's District 6 Class AA Tournament.

Bill Dubler, a sixth place finisher at 160 pounds at the PIAA championships last March as well as a Progressland First Team Selection, has graduated. Dubler was 33-4 last year, capturing district and sub-regional titles as well as a third place finish at the Southwest Regional Tournament. He finished with a career record of 92-27.

One of Packer's main concerns coming into the season is a lack of depth at certain weights. The Vikings will open up the season Thursday at home with Claysburg-Kimmel without anybody at 112 and 130.

The Vikings will welcome sophomore Terry Collins into the lineup at 103.

John Ross, who compiled a 13-12 record at 103, 112 and 119 pounds last season, will begin the season at 119.

"I expect good things from John this year," said Packer. "I think he will do well."

Following Ross will be senior Josh Hewitt at 125. Hewitt saw action last season at 112, 119 and 125, finishing the year at 15-12.

"Two years ago Josh did really well," Packer said. "Last season he had a knee problem. He has overcome that and is looking forward to having a successful season."

At 135 will be senior Josh Irvine, who went 20-8 at 125, 130 and 135 pounds. He captured the district title at 130 pounds.

Sophomore Joe Luther will fill the spot at 140 pounds.

Senior Matt Patterson moves up to 145 pounds, inheriting the spot from graduate Mike Lieb. Patterson was 11-16 last season, splitting time at 130 and 135.

"Matt has had some really good practices," Packer said. "He should contribute well this season."

Senior Chad Bickford moves up into the 152 spot, beating out sophomore Justin Anderson. Bickford went 14-11 at 140 and 145 last year.

"Chad has been working really hard in the offseason lifting weights and also in practice," said Packer.

Sophomore Doug Brown, who went 6-11 at 152, will step up and fill the 160-pound spot. He will be followed by senior Jim Bob Fleming at 171. At 189 will be junior Jeff Best. Best competed in only five matches last year but was 5-0 with four of those wins coming by way of fall.

Rounding out the lineup will be returning heavyweight Phil Smeal. The First Team Progressland All-Star began the year at 17-4 but injured his knee late in the season. He came back for districts, but lost to West Branch's Jason Smeal in the first round.

"With this number of upperclassmen and talented underclassmen, we are optimistic about the season," said Packer, who will be assisted by Leroy Ross and Josh McConnell.
