

Glendale wrestling continues to improve

By Rich Murawski
Assistant Sports Editor

FLINTON — Last season was filled with growing pains for the Glendale wrestling team, which finished its season 6-16. But lost in that overall record is the fact that a steadily improving squad won five of its last eight dual meets and hopes to carry that into this campaign.

"With such a lack of experience and such a young team last year, we scheduled a lot of matches because win, lose or draw we wanted to get the kids on the mat," Glendale head coach Bill Damiano said. "We accomplished that. Most of the kids had over 25 matches, so we got a lot of mat time and the kids grew through that."

"The second half of the season was much better than the first. We scored a lot more falls, and that's when we started picking up dual meet wins. We were overmatched against a lot of teams because of sheer numbers. We beat a couple teams on the mat but lost to them because of forfeits."

But despite the obvious improvement through the year and the hard work and dedication being displayed in the wrestling room this year in practice, Damiano has taken a one-step-at-a-time attitude.

"We're going to take a philosophy this year of winning the first match and then building on that," he said. "You can't look ahead at wins and losses with a team like this because they're unproven. Potential is such a heavy burden to carry. We have a lot of quality kids. We have kids up from junior high that had 20-plus wins. There were three or four kids that only experienced one or two losses, and we had one undefeated kid. We

"Jordan Marshall is a very intense competitor," Damiano said. "The word to describe Jordan would have to be 'fierce.' You might beat him, but you're going to be in for a match that night. We have a couple more young guys in there with Beers, Rusnak and Sanders. Smith is a senior this year and is a heck of an athlete. He's such a good athlete and he has no fear. I don't think he's afraid of anything. He's fun to watch ... exciting."

A healthy Tarr will start at 152 and hopes the injury bug stays away this season.

"Kelsey is such a proven commodity for us," Damiano said. "You look at the kids he lost to last year and they're all pretty solid. His conditioning is better this year, and he dealt with some injuries last year. But this year, he's healthy and has a great attitude. He's a team leader."

Following Tarr in the lineup will be Craig Bickford (160) and Hommer (171) with sophomore Will McCusker, Fry and sophomore Robert Jefferies vying for time in the lineup.

"Bickford is one of our solid sophomores," Damiano said.

also had some varsity kids with a lot of wins. That should add up to success if we match up well. If we win the individual battles, the wars will take care of themselves. A dual meet win will come when we put nine or 10 victories on the mat together."

The Vikings have a quality group of returning letterwinners to look to, and Damiano expects them to be the core of the team. Seniors Bob Chirdon, Delwyn Fry, Robert Shomo and Kelsey Tarr and juniors Cody Caracciolo, Mike Hommer and Jordan Marshall all had varying degrees of success, and Damiano is putting his trust in this group to lead by example.

"With this group, I think we have good leadership, and their experience will be invaluable to us," he said. "That's what we're counting on."

Chirdon will anchor the lightweights at 112, while sophomores Justin O'Shell and Bryant Sweitzer will fill in around him.

"I feel confident in the bottom of the lineup with Bob Chirdon coming back as a three-year starter," Damiano said. "Bob battled some injuries last year, but I think he'll be solid. We have a couple young guys down there with O'Shell and Sweitzer, so we're counting on Bob."

Marshall looks to go at 125, followed by junior Brad Beers, sophomores Steven Rusnak and Josh Sanders and senior Joe Smith.

"He's kind of funky. You watch Craig Bickford wrestle and you have no idea what's going to happen next. He's a great kid. We have a couple brawlers in there with McCusker and Hommer. Mike's a solid kid coming off a great football season. He's real aggressive. At 189 we have Delwyn, who was a starter for us last year, and Robert Jefferies, who was undefeated in junior high. He's the real deal, so that is going to be interesting who wins that."

Up top, Glendale will count on Caracciolo and Shomo to put up some big numbers in the win column.

"Cody's going to be a mauler. He really is," Damiano said. "He brings back memories of practicing with Thad Francisco. He has that brawling style. Cody will open some eyes this year. His confidence level is at an all-time high. At heavyweight, we have Robert 'Shrek' Shomo, who's coming off 20 wins last year, and I think 16-17 pins. He's a classic heavyweight. If he gets you on your back, he's going to keep you there. Robert wants to get to regionals this year, and he could get there."

With a lot of young talent on the team to go with several proven wrestlers, Damiano is hoping the Vikings can go a little farther in the postseason after not getting anyone through districts last year.

"Barring injuries, the sky's the limit for some of these guys," Damiano said. "They're starting to believe in themselves, which is key. Confidence will take you everywhere in this sport. I'm definitely looking to break that drought and get back to regionals, and I'd like to get back to Hershey. Right now, we're sort of flying under everybody's radar."

Damiano says no matter what, the Vikings will definitely be an exciting team to watch.

"We're going to have a lot of flash this year because we have a lot of big-move kids," he said. "We have a lot of guys that like to hit some exciting moves. I encourage them. I see these teams that just headlock or cradle you to death. We're not like that, we have a variety of moves. These kids want to learn the exciting stuff. The single-leg and double-leg are your bread-and-butter, but they want to be flashy too."
